PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Pre-Lesson Warm-Up: Getting Ready for a Play

Today you will read a play about the Delgado family's strawberry farm near Plant City, Florida. Show what you already know. It is fine to guess!

1. Review (Week 16): Break the word predictable into its parts (prefix, root, suffix). What does the whole word mean?

2. How do you think a play is written differently from a story in a book? Write one or two ideas.

3. Which line is written the way a play script is written?

   - PALOMA: (pointing) The thermometer says thirty-four.
   - Paloma pointed and said, "The thermometer says thirty-four."
   - Paloma said the thermometer said thirty-four.

4. Rewrite this sentence with a comma, quotation marks, a capital letter, and an end mark: Teo shouted look at the frost

5. Words in a play that tell actors how to move or speak, like (whispering), are probably called...

   - stage directions
   - the title
   - the cast

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson Activity: From Script to Story

Watch your quotation marks, commas, capitals, and end marks.

1. Script to story: rewrite this line as a story sentence with a tag and quotation marks. ABUELA CARMEN: (softly) The ice is a blanket for the flowers tonight.

2. Story to script: rewrite this as a script line with a stage direction. Teo yawned and asked, "Can I go back to bed now?"

3. Be the editor. Rewrite each sentence correctly. a) teo yelled im the fastest one here b) The sprinklers in the field was hissing. c) (Teo is talking to Paloma.) Paloma there's ice on every leaf.

4. Writing: Read this new stage direction: (MR. PRYOR takes off his thick gloves and hands them to PALOMA without a word.) In 3 or 4 sentences, tell what it reveals about Mr. Pryor, and use details as evidence.

★ Challenge: Write a short scene (4 to 6 lines) for the next morning. Begin with a stage direction for the setting, and use two characters.

Looking Ahead: Week 18: two letters about an empty lot in Detroit: claims, reasons, evidence, and counterclaims.
