KCE PATHWAYS · GRADE 3 · UNIT 4: PARTS AND PIECES · WEEK 17 · READING

Poems by the Harbor — Teacher Lesson Plan & Answer Key

Learning objectives: Students identify the parts of a poem (lines and stanzas), find rhyming words, hear and count the strong beats that make rhythm, explain what a simile compares using like or as, and name the sense that a sensory word appeals to.

Duration: 35–45 minutes
Materials: Computer or tablet with the lesson open · pencil · printed Pre & Post sheet

Lesson flow (as it appears on screen)

1. Title and name: the student types first and last name so results go to KingCretot Experience. Read the Pathway Points rules together: 2 tries per question, points only for a correct first try, and the answer and reason appear after a second miss. Introduce poetry day on the harbor walk in Rockport, Massachusetts, with Josie, Keiko and Mrs. Pike.
2. Warm-Up, Part 1: Week 16 Review (6 pts, 3 each): context clues in a short text (a different text in each set).
3. Warm-Up, Part 2 (6 pts, 3 each): one more context-clue item and a find-the-mistake or typed meaning.
4. Pencil Break (Pre): the student opens or prints the Pre/Post sheet (grade3/prepost/KCE_Reading_PrePost_G3W17.pdf) and completes Page 1 (Pre) before any teaching. Do not help with answers; it shows what they already know.
5. Word Wrangler: 6 poetry cards (poem, stanza, rhyme, rhythm, simile, sensory words), each with a sentence from Mrs. Pike's welcome.
6. Picture It: The Parts of a Poem. Lines, stanzas and the colored rhyme pattern. Ask: how can you tell where a new stanza starts?
7. Read: Three Poems by the Harbor (Morning at the Harbor, The Lobster Boat, Fog Day). Read each poem aloud and clap the beat.
8. Lines, Stanzas, and Rhyme, Part 1 (6 pts, 3 each): counting lines and stanzas and finding rhymes.
9. Lines, Stanzas, and Rhyme, Part 2 (3 pts): one more item using the harbor poems.
10. Rhythm: Feel the Beat, Part 1 (6 pts, 3 each): clap the strong beats and count syllables. Tip: every line of Morning at the Harbor has 8 syllables and 4 strong beats.
11. Rhythm: Feel the Beat, Part 2 (3 pts): one more rhythm item (rhythm is the beat; rhyme is the ending sound).
12. Similes: Like or As, Part 1 (6 pts, 3 each): find the simile and say what two things are compared.
13. Similes: Like or As, Part 2 (3 pts): one more simile item.
14. Sensory Words: Use Your Five Senses, Part 1 (6 pts, 3 each): match sensory words to see, hear, smell, taste or touch.
15. Sensory Words: Use Your Five Senses, Part 2 (3 pts): one more sensory-word item.
16. Word Work Bonus, Part 1: Rhyming Word Families (XP only, not scored).
17. Word Work Bonus, Part 2: Rhyming Word Families (XP only, not scored).
18. Match-Up Round (10 pts, 2 per first-try match): Set 1 matches poetry words to meanings, Set 2 matches lines to the sense they use, Set 3 matches similes to the things they compare.
19. Fix the Sentence (10 pts, 5 each): each item names the one kind of fix (capital letters, end mark, list commas, or one verb). The whole sentence is checked exactly; curly quotes and extra spaces are forgiven. The corrected sentence appears after the 2nd miss.

20. ⌨ Type-It Corral, Part 1 (8 pts, 4 each): typed vocabulary and text-detail answers; capital letters and a final period do not matter, but spelling does. The “Look back” panel is allowed.
21. ⌨ Type-It Corral, Part 2 (4 pts): more typed answers, same checking rules.
22. Speed Arena, Part 1 (XP only, not scored).
23. Speed Arena, Part 2 and Keyboard Corral (XP only, not scored).
24. Boss Battle, Part 1: Harbor Poetry Challenge (10 pts, 5 each): two-step simile items and find-the-mistake about lines and stanzas.
25. Boss Battle, Part 2: Harbor Poetry Challenge (10 pts, 5 each): which-explanation-is-correct and a typed strong-beat count.
26. Pencil Break (Post): the student turns to Page 2 (Post) of the same sheet (grade3/prepost/KCE_Reading_PrePost_G3W17.pdf) and completes it, plus the ★ Challenge if time allows, before seeing the score. The sheet buttons let the student open or print it again.
27. Results (Harbor Poetry Day Complete!): the score out of 100 is sent to KingCretot Experience. 85 or higher shows “Poetry Parts Master!” with the congratulations message “Poetry parts master!” and a big confetti burst; below 85 shows “Great Effort Today!” with encouragement (“Every wave rolls back in stronger, and so will you!”), and the next attempt brings a fresh question set (sets rotate 1, 2, 3). Both messages remind the student to finish the Post-Lesson Challenge sheet.

Lesson answer key with reasoning

Every scored item the student sees, in order, across all three rotating question sets. Each item allows 2 tries and earns Pathway Points only on a correct first try. The "why" is the same reasoning shown on screen after a second missed try.

WARM-UP: WEEK 16 REVIEW (3 POINTS EACH)

w1_s0	Set 1: Apple Picking Day After picking apples all morning, Jasper was famished. He was so hungry that he ate two sandwiches and a big red apple! His sister Nora was not tired at all, but Jasper felt weary. He sat down on the trunk of a fallen tree to rest. Read it to me What does famished mean in this text? [Very hungry / Very tired / Very happy / Very cold]	Very hungry	The next sentence says Jasper was so hungry that he ate two sandwiches. That synonym clue shows famished means very hungry.
w2_s0	Set 1: Which sentence is the best context clue for the word famished? [He was so hungry that he ate two sandwiches and a big red apple! / After picking apples all morning, Jasper was famished. / He sat down on the trunk of a fallen tree to rest. / His sister Nora was not tired at all.]	He was so hungry that he ate two sandwiches and a big red apple!	He was so hungry is a synonym clue. It uses a word that means almost the same thing as famished.
w3_s0	Set 1: Find the mistake! Nora says weary means full of energy, because the text says she was not tired. What went wrong? [The word but shows an opposite. Nora was not tired, but Jasper was, so weary means tired. / Weary is not in the text. / Weary means hungry, because Jasper ate a lot. / Nothing went wrong.]	The word but shows an opposite. Nora was not tired, but Jasper was, so weary means tired.	The word but signals an opposite. Nora was not tired, but Jasper was, so weary means tired. The not tired part is an antonym clue.

w4_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: In this text, trunk means the thick main stem of a ___.	tree (also accepted: a tree, trees)	Trunk is a multiple-meaning word. A fallen tree tells you this trunk is the thick main stem of a tree, not an elephant nose or a car part.
w1_s1	Set 2: A Morning at the Pond On Saturday, Maya went fishing at the pond. The water was so still that there was not a single ripple. A bat swooped over the water to catch bugs for its supper. When a fish finally tugged on her line, Maya was elated. She jumped up and cheered! Read it to me In this text, what does bat mean? [A small flying animal / A stick used to hit a ball / To hit a ball / A wink of an eye]	A small flying animal	Bat is a multiple-meaning word. The clues swooped and catch bugs show it is the flying animal, not the stick for hitting a ball.
w2_s1	Set 2: The water was so still that there was not a single ripple. Here, still means calm and not ___. Answer:	moving (also accepted: move)	The clue not a single ripple shows that still means calm and not moving.
w3_s1	Set 2: Which explanation is correct? Josie says elated means very happy, because Maya jumped up and cheered. Keiko says elated means scared, because a fish tugged the line. [Josie is right, because jumping and cheering show Maya was very happy / Keiko is right, because a tug on the line is scary / Both are right, because elated has two meanings here / Neither is right, because there is no clue]	Josie is right, because jumping and cheering show Maya was very happy	Maya jumped up and cheered, which shows she was very happy. That clue tells you elated means very happy and excited.
w4_s1	Set 2: Two steps! Step 1: find the word line in the text. Step 2: does it mean a fishing string or a row of people waiting? Type string or row. Answer:	string (also accepted: a string, fishing string, a fishing string)	Line is a multiple-meaning word. A fish tugged on her line while she was fishing, so here line means the string on a fishing pole, not a row of people.
w1_s2	Set 3: Snow Day Snow fell all night, and by morning the yard was buried under a thick white blanket. Jada wanted to build a snowman, but the snow was too powdery. It fell apart like flour in her mittens. The next day, the snow turned sticky and was perfect for packing. As Jada rolled the last snowball, she heard the loud bark of her neighbor's dog. Read it to me What does powdery mean in this text? [Dry and loose, so it falls apart / Wet and heavy / Very cold and icy / Sticky and easy to pack]	Dry and loose, so it falls apart	Powdery snow fell apart like flour. That clue, and the opposite word sticky, show powdery means dry and loose.
w2_s2	Set 3: Which word in the text is an ANTONYM clue (an opposite) for powdery? [sticky / flour / thick / buried]	sticky	The text says the snow turned sticky and was perfect for packing. Sticky is the opposite of powdery, so it is an antonym clue.

w3_s2	Set 3: Find the mistake! Jada's brother says bark in this text means the hard outside of a tree. What went wrong? [The text says the bark of her neighbor's dog, so here bark means the sound a dog makes. / Bark always means the outside of a tree. / The word bark is not in the text. / Nothing went wrong.]	The text says the bark of her neighbor's dog, so here bark means the sound a dog makes.	Bark is a multiple-meaning word. The text says the bark of her neighbor's dog, so here bark means the sound a dog makes.
w4_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: Type the word in the first sentence that means covered up all the way: ___	buried	Buried under a thick white blanket means the yard was covered all the way by snow.

LINES, STANZAS, AND RHYME (3 POINTS EACH)

t1a_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: How many stanzas are in Morning at the Harbor? ___	2 (also accepted: two)	Morning at the Harbor has one space after line 4, which splits it into 2 groups of 4 lines. That is 2 stanzas.
t1b_s0	Set 1: Which word from Morning at the Harbor rhymes with spray? [bay / salt / bell / feet]	bay	Line 5 ends with spray and line 6 ends with bay. Both end with the -ay sound, so they rhyme.
t1c_s0	Set 1: Which explanation is correct? Josie says Fog Day is not a poem because it does not rhyme. Keiko says a poem does not have to rhyme, and Fog Day is still a poem because it is written in lines and stanzas. [Keiko is right, because poems do not have to rhyme / Josie is right, because every poem must rhyme / Josie is right, because Fog Day has no stanzas / Neither is right, because Fog Day is a story]	Keiko is right, because poems do not have to rhyme	A poem does not have to rhyme. Fog Day is written in lines and stanzas and uses sound and picture words, so it is a poem.
t1a_s1	Set 2: Two steps! The Lobster Boat has 3 stanzas, and each stanza has 2 lines. How many lines are in the whole poem? Answer:	6 (also accepted: six)	The Lobster Boat has 3 stanzas with 2 lines in each. 3 groups of 2 is 2 + 2 + 2 = 6 lines.
t1b_s1	Set 2: Find the mistake! Josie says red and overhead cannot rhyme because they are spelled differently at the end. What went wrong? [Rhyming is about the ending sound, not the spelling. Red and overhead both end with the same sound. / Red and overhead are not in the poem. / Words only rhyme if they have the same number of letters. / Nothing went wrong.]	Rhyming is about the ending sound, not the spelling. Red and overhead both end with the same sound.	Rhyme is about the ending SOUND, not the spelling. Red and overhead both end with the -ed sound, so they rhyme.
t1c_s1	Set 2: In The Lobster Boat, which pair of words rhymes? [snail and pail / boat and tide / red and bear / home and smoke]	snail and pail	Stanza 3 of The Lobster Boat ends with snail and pail. Both end with the -ail sound, so they rhyme.
t1a_s2	Set 3: Two steps! Step 1: find line 6 of Morning at the Harbor. Step 2: find the word it rhymes with. [Line 6 ends with bay, and it rhymes with spray. / Line 6 ends with bay, and it rhymes with feet. / Line 6 ends with sun, and it rhymes with one. / Line 6 ends with red, and it rhymes with overhead.]	Line 6 ends with bay, and it rhymes with spray.	Line 6 is I hear the bell across the bay. It ends in bay, and bay rhymes with spray at the end of line 5.

t1b_s2	Set 3: Fog Day has 3 stanzas with 3 lines in each one. How many lines does Fog Day have in all? Answer:	9 (also accepted: nine)	Fog Day has 3 stanzas with 3 lines each. 3 + 3 + 3 = 9 lines.
t1c_s2	Set 3: Keiko wants to add a line to The Lobster Boat that rhymes with tide. Which line works? [The gulls all watched us from the side. / The gulls all watched us from the dock. / The gulls all watched us from above. / The gulls all watched us from the shore.]	The gulls all watched us from the side.	Side ends with the -ide sound, just like tide. Dock, above, and shore do not end with that sound.

RHYTHM: FEEL THE BEAT (3 POINTS EACH)

t2a_s0	Set 1: Clap the strong beats in this line: The gulls cry loudly overhead. How many strong beats (claps) did you hear? Answer:	4 (also accepted: four)	the GULLS cry LOUD-ly O-ver-HEAD: you clap on gulls, loud, o, and head. That is 4 strong beats.
t2b_s0	Set 1: What is rhythm in a poem? [The beat you hear when you read it aloud / Words that end with the same sound / A group of lines / A comparison using like or as]	The beat you hear when you read it aloud	Rhythm is the beat of a poem. Words with the same ending sound are rhyme, a group of lines is a stanza, and like or as comparisons are similes.
t2c_s0	Set 1: Find the mistake! Keiko clapped the word beneath as just 1 syllable in The dock boards creak beneath my feet. How many syllables does the line really have? [8, because be-neath has 2 syllables / 7, because beneath is one word / 4, because there are 4 strong beats / 6, because there are 6 words]	8, because be-neath has 2 syllables	The-dock-boards-creak-be-neath-my-feet. Beneath has 2 syllables, be and neath, so the line has 8 syllables, like every other line.
t2a_s1	Set 2: Count the syllables in this line: I hear the bell across the bay. How many syllables? Answer:	8 (also accepted: eight)	I-hear-the-bell-a-cross-the-bay. Across has 2 syllables, so the line has 8 syllables.
t2b_s1	Set 2: Which explanation is correct? Josie says Morning at the Harbor has a steady rhythm because every line has 4 strong beats. Keiko says it has a steady rhythm because every line ends with the letter e. [Josie is right, because rhythm comes from a steady pattern of beats / Keiko is right, because rhythm comes from the last letter / Both are right / Neither is right, because the poem has no rhythm]	Josie is right, because rhythm comes from a steady pattern of beats	A steady rhythm comes from a repeating beat. Every line of Morning at the Harbor has 4 strong beats. Letters at the end of lines do not make rhythm.
t2c_s1	Set 2: Two steps! Step 1: count the strong beats in line 1 of Morning at the Harbor. Step 2: decide if the other lines match. [4 beats, and yes, every line has 4 beats, so the rhythm is steady. / 4 beats, but no, every line has a different number. / 8 beats, and yes, every line has 8 beats. / 2 beats, and no, the lines do not match.]	4 beats, and yes, every line has 4 beats, so the rhythm is steady.	Line 1 has 4 strong beats: SKY, UP, PINK, RED. Every other line also has 4, so the rhythm stays steady.
t2a_s2	Set 3: Count the syllables in this line: And sticky buns smell warm and sweet. How many syllables? Answer:	8 (also accepted: eight)	And-stick-y-buns-smell-warm-and-sweet. Sticky has 2 syllables, so the line has 8 syllables.

t2b_s2	Set 3: Which new line has the SAME rhythm as the lines in Morning at the Harbor (8 syllables and 4 strong beats)? [The waves roll in and splash the sand. / Waves splash. / The waves come rolling, rolling, rolling in to splash upon the sandy shore. / Splash, splash, splash.]	The waves roll in and splash the sand.	the WAVES roll IN and SPLASH the SAND has 8 syllables and 4 strong beats, just like the lines in the poem.
t2c_s2	Set 3: Find the mistake! Josie says rhythm and rhyme are the same thing. What went wrong? [Rhyme is words that end with the same sound. Rhythm is the beat of the poem. / Rhythm is a group of lines. / Rhyme is the beat, and rhythm is a comparison. / Nothing went wrong.]	Rhyme is words that end with the same sound. Rhythm is the beat of the poem.	Rhyme and rhythm are different parts of a poem. Rhyme is words that end with the same sound. Rhythm is the beat.

SIMILES: LIKE OR AS (3 POINTS EACH)

t3a_s0	Set 1: Which line from the poems is a simile? [It rocks like a cradle on the tide. / My old boat is red and wide. / I hear the bell across the bay. / Wet air tickles my cheeks.]	It rocks like a cradle on the tide.	It rocks like a cradle on the tide compares the boat to a cradle using like. The other lines do not compare two things.
t3b_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: Finish the simile from The Lobster Boat: The engine growls as loud as a ___.	bear (also accepted: a bear)	The Lobster Boat, stanza 2: The engine growls as loud as a bear.
t3c_s0	Set 1: Find the mistake! Josie says, "I like sticky buns" is a simile because it uses the word like. What went wrong? [It does not compare two different things. Here, like means enjoy, so it is not a simile. / Similes must use the word as, never like. / Sticky buns are not in any poem. / Nothing went wrong.]	It does not compare two different things. Here, like means enjoy, so it is not a simile.	A simile must compare two different things. In I like sticky buns, like means enjoy, so it is not a simile.
t3a_s1	Set 2: Type your answer: In Fog Day, the fog slips away like a shy ___.	ghost (also accepted: a ghost)	Fog Day, stanza 3: the fog slips away like a shy ghost.
t3b_s1	Set 2: Two steps! Read: At dusk we chug home, slow as a snail. Step 1: what two things are compared? Step 2: what does it tell you? [The boat and a snail, so the boat moves very slowly. / The boat and a snail, so the boat moves very fast. / Dusk and home, so it is getting dark. / Lobsters and a pail, so the pail is full.]	The boat and a snail, so the boat moves very slowly.	The simile compares the boat to a snail. Snails are very slow, so the boat moves very slowly as it chugs home.
t3c_s1	Set 2: Which explanation is correct? Keiko says the fog is like a blanket because both are soft and cover things up. Josie says the fog is like a blanket because both keep you warm. [Keiko is right, because fog and a blanket both softly cover things / Josie is right, because fog keeps you warm / Both are right / Neither is right, because this is not a simile]	Keiko is right, because fog and a blanket both softly cover things	Fog and a blanket are both soft and cover things up. That is why the poet compares them. Fog is cold and wet, not warm.
t3a_s2	Set 3: What does the simile "It rocks like a cradle on the tide" tell you about the boat? [It moves gently back and forth. / It is sinking fast. / It is very loud. / It is shaped like a bed.]	It moves gently back and forth.	A cradle rocks a baby gently back and forth. The simile tells you the boat moves gently on the water the same way.

t3b_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: A simile compares two things using the word like or the word ___.	as	A simile compares two different things using the word like or the word as.
t3c_s2	Set 3: Find the mistake! Keiko says "The waves are blue" is a simile. What went wrong? [It does not compare two different things with like or as, so it is not a simile. / Waves are never blue. / A simile must rhyme. / Nothing went wrong.]	It does not compare two different things with like or as, so it is not a simile.	The waves are blue only describes the waves. A simile needs two different things compared with like or as, such as The waves are as blue as a jay.

SENSORY WORDS: USE YOUR FIVE SENSES (3 POINTS EACH)

t4a_s0	Set 1: Read: I hear the foghorn moan, low and long. Which sense does this line use? [Hearing / Taste / Sight / Smell]	Hearing	Hear and moan describe a sound, so this line uses the sense of hearing.
t4b_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: Morning at the Harbor says, "I smell the salt, I ___ the spray."	taste	Morning at the Harbor, line 5: I smell the salt, I taste the spray.
t4c_s0	Set 1: Which explanation is correct? Josie says "Wet air tickles my cheeks" uses touch, because it tells how the air feels on skin. Keiko says it uses sight, because cheeks are on your face. [Josie is right, because it tells how something feels / Keiko is right, because you can see cheeks / Both are right / Neither is right, because there is no sensory word]	Josie is right, because it tells how something feels	Wet and tickles tell how the air feels on her skin. Feeling something on your skin is the sense of touch.
t4a_s1	Set 2: Which line from the poems uses the sense of SIGHT? [The sky wakes up in pink and red. / The engine growls as loud as a bear. / Wet air tickles my cheeks. / Even my mittens smell like the sea.]	The sky wakes up in pink and red.	Pink and red are colors you see, so this line uses sight. The others use hearing, touch, and smell.
t4b_s1	Set 2: Type the action word that tells the SOUND the engine makes: The engine growls as loud as a bear. Answer:	growls (also accepted: growl)	Growls is the sound the engine makes. It is a hearing word.
t4c_s1	Set 2: Find the mistake! Keiko says Fog Day has no sensory words because it is a short poem. What went wrong? [Fog Day has many sensory words, like moan, wet, tickles, and smell like the sea. / Short poems cannot have sensory words. / Fog Day is not a short poem. / Nothing went wrong.]	Fog Day has many sensory words, like moan, wet, tickles, and smell like the sea.	Fog Day is short, but it is full of sensory words: moan (hear), wet and tickles (touch), smell like the sea (smell), and disappears (see).
t4a_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: In Fog Day, the poet's mittens smell like the ___.	sea (also accepted: the sea, ocean)	Fog Day, stanza 2: Even my mittens smell like the sea.
t4b_s2	Set 3: Which explanation is correct? Josie says "And sticky buns smell warm and sweet" uses only sight. Keiko says it uses smell, and the word sticky also makes you think of touch. [Keiko is right, because the line uses smell, and sticky is about touch / Josie is right, because you can see buns / Both are right / Neither is right]	Keiko is right, because the line uses smell, and sticky is about touch	The line says the buns smell warm and sweet, which is smell, and sticky makes you think of how they feel, which is touch. It is not only sight.

t4c_s2	Set 3: Keiko wants to add a line that uses the sense of TOUCH. Which line should she add? [The cold dock rail feels wet and slick. / The lighthouse is tall and white. / A seagull squawks above the boats. / The fish market smells salty.]	The cold dock rail feels wet and slick.	Cold, wet, and slick tell how the rail feels on your hands. That is touch. The other lines use sight, hearing, and smell.

MATCH-UP ROUND (2 POINTS PER FIRST-TRY MATCH)

match_s0_1	Set 1: Match Stanza	a group of lines in a poem	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s0_2	Set 1: Match Rhyme	words that end with the same sound	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s0_3	Set 1: Match Rhythm	the beat you hear when you read aloud	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s0_4	Set 1: Match Simile	compares two things using like or as	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s0_5	Set 1: Match Sensory words	tell what you see, hear, smell, taste, or touch	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s1_1	Set 2: Match The gulls cry loudly	hearing	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s1_2	Set 2: Match The sky wakes up in pink and red	sight	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s1_3	Set 2: Match I taste the spray	taste	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s1_4	Set 2: Match Wet air tickles my cheeks	touch	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s1_5	Set 2: Match My mittens smell like the sea	smell	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s2_1	Set 3: Match rocks like a cradle	moves gently back and forth	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s2_2	Set 3: Match as loud as a bear	makes a very loud sound	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s2_3	Set 3: Match slow as a snail	moves very slowly	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s2_4	Set 3: Match like a soft gray blanket	covers everything softly	2 points if matched on the first try.
match_s2_5	Set 3: Match like a shy ghost	slips away quietly	2 points if matched on the first try.

FIX THE SENTENCE (5 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
fx1_s0	Set 1: Fix the sentence. It needs TWO fixes: a capital letter at the start and an end mark. the gulls cry over the harbor	The gulls cry over the harbor.	Every sentence starts with a capital letter, so the becomes The. A telling sentence ends with a period.
fx2_s0	Set 1: Fix the sentence. This is an asking sentence. Fix the capital letter and the end mark. do you hear the foghorn.	Do you hear the foghorn?	Every sentence starts with a capital letter, so do becomes Do. An asking sentence ends with a question mark, not a period.
fx1_s1	Set 2: Fix the sentence. Add commas to separate the things in the list. I can smell salt fish and rain.	I can smell salt, fish, and rain. (also accepted: I can smell salt, fish and rain.)	Use commas to separate three or more things in a list: salt, fish, and rain.

fx2_s1	Set 2: Fix the sentence. Names of people always begin with a capital letter, and so does the first word. josie and keiko walked to the dock.	Josie and Keiko walked to the dock.	Josie and Keiko are names, so each one gets a capital letter. Josie is also the first word of the sentence.
fx1_s2	Set 3: Fix the sentence. Add commas to separate the colors in the list. The lobster traps are red yellow and blue.	The lobster traps are red, yellow, and blue. (also accepted: The lobster traps are red, yellow and blue.)	Use commas to separate three or more things in a list: red, yellow, and blue.
fx2_s2	Set 3: Fix the sentence. It needs TWO fixes: a capital letter at the start and an end mark. my grandpa wrote a poem about his boat	My grandpa wrote a poem about his boat.	Every sentence starts with a capital letter, so my becomes My. A telling sentence ends with a period.

⌨ TYPE-IT CORRAL (4 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
ty1_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: Words that end with the same sound, like spray and bay, are called ___ words.	rhyming (also accepted: rhyme)	Words that end with the same sound are called rhyming words, like spray and bay.
ty2_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: In Morning at the Harbor, the dock boards ___ beneath my feet.	creak (also accepted: creaks)	Morning at the Harbor, line 7: The dock boards creak beneath my feet.
ty3_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: In The Lobster Boat, line 3 ends with bear. Type the last word of line 4, which rhymes with it: ___	air (also accepted: the air)	The Lobster Boat, line 4: And gray smoke puffs into the air. Air and bear both end with the -air sound.
ty1_s1	Set 2: Type your answer: A group of lines in a poem is called a ___.	stanza	A group of lines in a poem is called a stanza.
ty2_s1	Set 2: Type your answer: In The Lobster Boat, the boat rocks like a ___ on the tide.	cradle (also accepted: a cradle)	The Lobster Boat, line 2: It rocks like a cradle on the tide. ty3_s1	Set 2: Type the last word of line 2 in Morning at the Harbor. It rhymes with red. Answer:	overhead	Line 1 ends with red, and line 2 ends with overhead. Both end with the -ed sound.
ty1_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: A ___ compares two different things using like or as.	simile	A simile compares two different things using like or as.
ty2_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: In Fog Day, the fog rolls in like a soft gray ___.	blanket (also accepted: a blanket)	Fog Day, stanza 1: The fog rolls in like a soft gray blanket.
ty3_s2	Set 3: Finish the simile from The Lobster Boat: At dusk we chug home, slow as a ___. Answer:	snail (also accepted: a snail)	The Lobster Boat, stanza 3: At dusk we chug home, slow as a snail.

BOSS BATTLE: HARBOR POETRY CHALLENGE (5 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
bb1_s0	Set 1: Two steps! Read: The fog rolls in / like a soft gray blanket. Step 1: is it a simile? Step 2: what does it help you picture? [Yes, it compares fog to a blanket, so the fog covers everything softly. / No, it has no like or as, so the fog is loud. / Yes, it compares fog to a lighthouse, so the fog is bright. / No, it is a rhyme, so the fog is cold.]	Yes, it compares fog to a blanket, so the fog covers everything softly.	Like a soft gray blanket compares the fog to a blanket using like, so it is a simile. It helps you picture fog covering everything softly.

bb2_s0	Set 1: Find the mistake! Josie described Morning at the Harbor: “3 stanzas, 4 lines in each, and the lines rhyme in pairs.” What did she get wrong? [It has 2 stanzas, not 3. / The stanzas have 2 lines each, not 4. / The lines do not rhyme. / She got it all right.]	It has 2 stanzas, not 3.	Morning at the Harbor has 2 stanzas of 4 lines, and the lines do rhyme in pairs. Only the number of stanzas was wrong.
bb3_s0	Set 1: Which explanation is correct? Josie says The Lobster Boat and Fog Day BOTH use similes. Keiko says ONLY The Lobster Boat uses similes. [Josie is right, because Fog Day has similes too, like “like a shy ghost” / Keiko is right, because Fog Day has no like or as / Keiko is right, because only rhyming poems have similes / Neither is right, because neither poem has a simile]	Josie is right, because Fog Day has similes too, like “like a shy ghost”	The Lobster Boat has similes, such as “rocks like a cradle,” and Fog Day has similes too, such as “like a shy ghost.” Both poems use similes.
bb4_s0	Set 1: Clap this line: Then slip away to meet the sun. How many strong beats? Answer:	4 (also accepted: four)	then SLIP a-WAY to MEET the SUN: you clap on slip, way, meet, and sun. That is 4 strong beats.
bb1_s1	Set 2: Which line uses TWO senses, sight and hearing? (A bell buoy is a floating bell that rings when waves rock it.) [The red bell buoy clangs in the waves. / The bell buoy is red. / The bell rings. / The rope feels rough.]	The red bell buoy clangs in the waves.	Red is something you see, and clangs is something you hear. That line uses two senses. The others use only one.
bb2_s1	Set 2: Two steps! Fog Day has 9 lines. Keiko adds 2 more stanzas with 3 lines in each. How many lines will Fog Day have now? Answer:	15 (also accepted: fifteen)	Fog Day has 9 lines. 2 new stanzas of 3 lines each add 3 + 3 = 6 lines. 9 + 6 = 15 lines.
bb3_s1	Set 2: Find the mistake! Josie says, “The Lobster Boat has a simile in every stanza, so it cannot have rhyme too.” What went wrong? [A poem can have similes and rhyme. The Lobster Boat rhymes, like wide and tide. / The Lobster Boat has no similes. / Only one stanza has a simile. / Nothing went wrong.]	A poem can have similes and rhyme. The Lobster Boat rhymes, like wide and tide.	A poem can have similes AND rhyme at the same time. The Lobster Boat has a simile in each stanza, and it rhymes, like wide and tide.
bb4_s1	Set 2: Which new line would fit best at the end of Morning at the Harbor? It must rhyme with sweet and keep 4 strong beats. [The fish man calls along the street. / The fish man calls. / The fish man calls along the road. / The fish man calls along the street to every person walking by.]	The fish man calls along the street.	Street rhymes with feet and sweet, and the FISH man CALLS a-LONG the STREET has 8 syllables and 4 strong beats, like the rest of the poem.
bb1_s2	Set 3: In Morning at the Harbor, which word at the end of a line rhymes with feet? Type it: Answer:	sweet	Line 7 ends with feet and line 8 ends with sweet. Both end with the -eet sound.
bb2_s2	Set 3: Two steps! Step 1: find the sound word in “The engine growls as loud as a bear.” Step 2: what kind of language is the whole line? [Growls, and the line is a simile because it compares the engine to a bear with as. / Growls, and the line is a stanza. / Bear, and the line is a rhyme. / Engine, and the line is not part of the poem.]	Growls, and the line is a simile because it compares the engine to a bear with as.	Growls is the sound word, which is hearing. The whole line compares the engine to a bear using as, so it is a simile.

bb3_s2	Set 3: Which explanation is correct? Josie says “My old boat is red and wide” has a sensory word, because red tells what you see. Keiko says it has no sensory words, because it never says the word see. [Josie is right, because red tells what you see / Keiko is right, because sensory lines must say see / Both are right / Neither is right]	Josie is right, because red tells what you see	A sensory word does not need the word see. Red is a color you can see, so it is a sensory word for sight. Wide also tells what you see.
bb4_s2	Set 3: Find the mistake! Keiko sorted the poems: Morning at the Harbor rhymes. The Lobster Boat rhymes. Fog Day rhymes. Which one did she get wrong? [Fog Day. It does not rhyme. / Morning at the Harbor. It does not rhyme. / The Lobster Boat. It does not rhyme. / She got them all right.]	Fog Day. It does not rhyme.	Fog Day does not rhyme. Its lines end in words like in, blanket, and disappears. The other two poems do rhyme.
