Frost Watch — Teacher Lesson Plan & Answer Key

Learning objectives: Students read a play and use its structure (cast of characters, acts and scenes, setting, dialogue and stage directions) to understand the story, explain what dialogue and stage directions reveal about a character, compare a scene written as a script with the same scene written as prose, and turn script lines into correctly punctuated story sentences.

Duration: 35–45 minutes
Materials: Computer or tablet with the lesson open · pencil · printed Pre & Post sheet

Lesson flow (as it appears on screen)

1. Slide 0 — Intro and name capture: the play Frost Watch by Lorena Vance follows the Delgado family on their strawberry farm near Plant City, Florida, on a freezing night (Paloma, Teo, Abuela Carmen and Mr. Pryor). The student types first and last name so results go to KingCretot Experience. Read the scoring rules together: 2 tries per question, Pathway Points only for a correct first try, and the answer plus the reason appear after the 2nd miss. Typed one-word answers ignore capital letters and are accepted when the answer contains an accepted word.
2. Slide 1 — Warm-Up: Week 16 Review (8 pts, 4 each): Greek and Latin roots.
3. Slide 2 — Pencil Break (Pre): the student opens or prints the Pre/Post sheet (grade4-5/prepost/KCE_Reading_PrePost_G4-5W17.pdf) and completes Page 1 (Pre-Lesson Warm-Up) on paper before any teaching.
4. Slide 3 — Picture It: How a Play Is Built. A script is written as a speaker's name, a colon and the line, with stage directions in parentheses. Have the student point to each part.
5. Slide 4 — Vocabulary Round-Up: 6 flip cards (script, playwright, cast of characters, scene, stage directions, dialogue).
6. Slide 5 — Your Turn: Using the Words (8 pts, 4 each): one multiple-choice and one typed vocabulary item.
7. Slide 6 — The Play, Part 1: Cast and Scene 1 (5 pts). Read it aloud in parts; read the stage directions as carefully as the lines.
8. Slide 7 — The Play, Part 2: Scene 2 (5 pts). The stage directions change the time and place, so it is a new scene.
9. Slide 8 — Dialogue Reveals Character (10 pts, 5 each): what characters say, how they say it, what they do, and how others react.
10. Slide 9 — Teach: Same Scene, Two Ways. Part of Scene 2 rewritten as prose; compare it with the script.
11. Slide 10 — Drama Detective (12 pts, 6 each): compare the play with the prose version.
12. Slide 11 — Fix the Sentence, Part 1 (8 pts, 4 each): each item names the one kind of fix. The whole sentence is checked exactly (straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK). The corrected sentence appears after the 2nd miss.
13. Slide 12 — Fix the Sentence, Part 2 (8 pts, 4 each): two more sentences, same rules.
14. Slide 13 — Script to Story (4 pts): turn a script line into a story sentence: the tag shown, a comma, quotation marks, and the end mark inside. Checked exactly.

15. Slide 14 — Writer's Turn: Stage Directions to Prose (6 pts): one typed answer auto-checked by rules: a minimum word count; no 4 or more words in a row copied from the original (allowed names count as one word); and every key idea included. Feedback names the rule that was missed, and a model answer appears after the 2nd miss. Encourage covering the original before writing.
16. Slide 15 — Match-Up Round (10 pts): 5 drama words matched to meanings, 2 pts each on the first try.
17. Slide 16 — Speed Trail (bonus XP only): 3 quick questions against the student's own best time.
18. Slide 17 — Boss Challenge (16 pts, 8 each): two-step items (first what the text says or which part of the play it is, then why it matters).
19. Slide 18 — Pencil Break (Post): the student completes Page 2 (Post-Lesson Activity) of the same sheet (grade4-5/prepost/KCE_Reading_PrePost_G4-5W17.pdf), including the writing item and the ★ Challenge if time allows, before seeing the score.
20. Slide 19 — Results (Curtain Call!): the score out of 100 is sent to KingCretot Experience. 85 or higher shows "Drama Detective!" with the congratulations message "Curtain call! The Delgado family's strawberries made it through the freezing night, and you made it through your first play like a true drama detective!" and a big confetti burst; below 85 shows "Keep Going!" with encouragement ("You're getting closer, and every try makes you stronger."), and the next attempt brings a fresh question set (sets rotate 1, 2, 3). Both messages remind the student to finish the Post-Lesson Challenge sheet.

Lesson answer key with reasoning

Every scored item the student sees, in order, across all three rotating question sets. Each item allows 2 tries and earns Pathway Points only on a correct first try. The "why" is the same reasoning shown on screen after a second missed try.

WARM-UP: WEEK 16 REVIEW (4 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
`rv1_s0`	Set 1: The Greek root therm means "heat." Which word ALSO comes from this root? [Thermal / Theme / Thirsty / Theater]	Thermal	Thermal means having to do with heat, like thermal socks that keep your feet warm. Theme, thirsty, and theater only start with similar letters; they do not contain the root therm (Week 16).
`rv2_s0`	Set 1: Type your answer: the Greek root hydro (also spelled hydr) means "water." What word with this root names the street pipe that firefighters hook their hoses to?	hydrant (also accepted: hydrants, fire hydrant)	Hydr (water) + -ant = hydrant, the street pipe that gives firefighters water for their hoses (Week 16).
`rv1_s1`	Set 2: Use context clues. "The pump coughs, sputters, then goes silent." In this sentence, sputters most likely means: [Makes short, uneven popping sounds / Runs smoothly and quietly all night / Fills up with cold water / Glows bright red]	Makes short, uneven popping sounds	The clues "coughs" and "then goes silent" show a machine struggling to run. Sputters means making short, uneven popping sounds (Week 16 context clues).
`rv2_s1`	Set 2: Type your answer: the prefix pre- means "before," and the Latin root dict means "say." What word means "to say what will happen before it happens"?	predict (also accepted: predicts, predicted, predicting, prediction, predictions)	Pre- (before) + dict (say) = predict, to say what will happen before it happens (Week 16).

rv1_s2	Set 3: The Latin root port means “carry.” Which word means “able to be carried”? [Portable / Transport / Report / Pottery]	Portable	Port (carry) + -able (able to be) = portable. Transport means to carry across, and report means to carry back news, so neither means “able to be carried.” Pottery does not contain the root port (Week 16).
rv2_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: the Greek root tele means “far,” and phon means “sound.” What word names a device that carries sound from far away?	telephone (also accepted: telephones)	Tele (far) + phon (sound) = telephone, a device that carries sound from far away (Week 16).

YOUR TURN: USING THE WORDS (4 POINTS EACH)

v1_s0	Set 1: In Frost Watch, you read: (ABUELA stops shelling. She sets down the bowl.) What are these words in parentheses called? [Stage directions / Dialogue / The cast of characters / The narrator]	Stage directions	The words in parentheses describe what Abuela does. Nobody says them out loud, so they are stage directions, not dialogue.
v2_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: a play is divided into big sections called acts, and each act is divided into smaller parts called ___.	scenes (also accepted: scene)	Acts are the big sections of a play, and each act is split into smaller parts called scenes.
v1_s1	Set 2: In Frost Watch, you read: TEO: Black strawberries! Maybe we could sell them as a new flavor. The words after “TEO:” are called ___. [Dialogue / Stage directions / The setting / A scene]	Dialogue	Words a character speaks out loud are dialogue. The name TEO and the colon show who is speaking.
v2_s1	Set 2: Type your answer: the written text of a play, with every line and every stage direction, is called the ___.	script (also accepted: scripts, playscript, play script)	The written text of a play, with all the lines and stage directions, is the script.
v1_s2	Set 3: Scene 2 begins: (The strawberry field, 3:00 in the morning.) What do these stage directions tell the reader? [The setting: the time and place of the scene / The cast of characters / What Paloma says next / The name of the playwright]	The setting: the time and place of the scene	“The strawberry field, 3:00 in the morning” names a place and a time. The time and place of a scene is its setting.
v2_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: a person who writes plays is called a ___. (Spelling counts!)	playwright (also accepted: playwrights)	A person who writes plays is a playwright. It ends in -wright (an old word for “maker”), not -write.

THE PLAY: CAST AND SCENE 1 (5 POINTS EACH)

sa_s0	Set 1: Type your answer: according to the radio announcer, how low could the temperature drop before sunrise? (Type the number of degrees.)	29 (also accepted: twenty-nine, twenty nine)	The radio announcer says, “Temperatures could drop to 29 degrees before sunrise.” That is colder than 32 degrees, the temperature at which water freezes.

sa_s1	Set 2: Paloma says, “the berries can’t take twenty-nine.” Which evidence from Scene 1 does she give to support this? [She wrote down last year that at 30 degrees or colder, the open flowers turn black. / The radio says the strawberries are already frozen. / Abuela says the berries will be fine. / Teo says black strawberries taste better.]	She wrote down last year that at 30 degrees or colder, the open flowers turn black.	Paloma backs up her worry with a fact from her notebook: “I wrote it down last year: at 30 degrees or colder, the open flowers turn black in the middle.” The other choices are not in the scene.
sa_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: if the pump will not start, whose door does Abuela say they will knock on? (Type the character’s name.)	pryor (also accepted: pryors, pryor's)	Abuela says, “Then we will knock on Mr. Pryor’s door. That is what neighbors are for.” Mr. Pryor is the farmer next door.

THE PLAY: SCENE 2 (5 POINTS EACH)

sb_s0	Set 1: According to Paloma, why does spraying water on the plants protect them on a freezing night? [Freezing water gives off a little heat, so the ice keeps the flowers at about 32 degrees. / The water washes the frost off the leaves so it cannot form again. / The sprinklers make the air warmer than 50 degrees. / The water helps the berries grow bigger before the freeze.]	Freezing water gives off a little heat, so the ice keeps the flowers at about 32 degrees.	Paloma explains, “When water freezes, it gives off a little heat. As long as we keep the water coming, the ice keeps the flowers at about thirty-two degrees, even if the air gets colder.” Real Florida strawberry farmers use sprinklers this way on freezing nights.
sb_s1	Set 2: Which stage direction shows the PROBLEM that the characters must solve in Scene 2? [(ABUELA CARMEN turns the valve. The pump coughs, sputters, then goes silent.) / (TEO yawns and pulls his hood over his ears.) / (Lights fade as the sprinklers glitter in the flashlight beam.) / (squinting at her)]	(ABUELA CARMEN turns the valve. The pump coughs, sputters, then goes silent.)	The problem in Scene 2 starts when the pump fails: “The pump coughs, sputters, then goes silent.” Without the pump, there is no water to protect the flowers.
sb_s2	Set 3: Type your answer: Mr. Pryor says nobody turns the water off until what happens to the ice?	melt (also accepted: melts, melted, melting, sun, sunrise, sun comes up, sunup)	Mr. Pryor says, “nobody turns this off until the sun melts every bit of ice.” Stopping too early is dangerous: the plants are still below freezing, and as the wet ice dries, it pulls heat away from them and can make them even colder than the air.

DIALOGUE REVEALS CHARACTER (5 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
ch1_s0	Set 1: TEO: Black strawberries! Maybe we could sell them as a new flavor. Midnight Berry! What does this line reveal about Teo? [He uses jokes to lighten a serious moment. / He knows more about farming than Paloma. / He is angry at the radio announcer. / He really plans to sell black strawberries.]	He uses jokes to lighten a serious moment.	Right after hearing scary news, Teo turns it into a joke about a new flavor. This shows he uses humor to lighten serious moments. Nothing in the line shows he wants to sell the berries for real.

ch2_s0	Set 1: PALOMA: I wrote it down last year: at 30 degrees or colder, the open flowers turn black in the middle. Which trait does this line BEST show? [Paloma is careful and organized; she keeps records to plan ahead. / Paloma is forgetful and needs others to remind her. / Paloma is silly and loves to joke. / Paloma does not care about the farm.]	Paloma is careful and organized; she keeps records to plan ahead.	Paloma wrote down a farming fact last year and remembers it now. That shows she is careful and organized, and she keeps records so she can plan.
ch1_s1	Set 2: ABUELA CARMEN: (calmly) Paloma is right. And Teo is right too. We will need a sense of humor tonight. Which explanation of Abuela's character is correct? [She is a calm, fair leader: she respects both children and then gives each one a job. / She is panicking, so she says yes to everyone. / She thinks the freeze is nothing to worry about. / She agrees only with Teo and ignores Paloma.]	She is a calm, fair leader: she respects both children and then gives each one a job.	Abuela speaks calmly, agrees with BOTH children, and then gives each one a job. That shows a calm, fair leader. She does not ignore Paloma, and she does not say there is nothing to worry about.
ch2_s1	Set 2: MR. PRYOR: (gruffly) Your brother pounded on my door like a woodpecker. Where's the pump? What do his words AND actions reveal about him? [He sounds grumpy, but he came at 3:00 in the morning to help right away, so he is generous underneath. / He is angry and refuses to help the family. / He thinks Teo is a real woodpecker. / He is shy and afraid to talk to anyone.]	He sounds grumpy, but he came at 3:00 in the morning to help right away, so he is generous underneath.	Mr. Pryor sounds grumpy (gruffly, the woodpecker complaint), but he drove over in the middle of the night with his toolbox and asks right away where the pump is. His actions show he is generous and helpful under his gruff manner.
ch1_s2	Set 3: Which line BEST shows that Teo is brave and quick to act? [TEO: (already running) I'll get Mr. Pryor! I'm the fastest one here! / (TEO yawns and pulls his hood over his ears.) / TEO: Why do we spray water on them if it's freezing? / TEO: (saluting) Yes, Captain Abuela!]	TEO: (already running) I'll get Mr. Pryor! I'm the fastest one here!	The stage direction (already running) shows Teo acting before anyone else, and his words "I'm the fastest one here!" show he knows how he can help. The other lines show sleepiness, curiosity, or obeying an order.
ch2_s2	Set 3: In Scene 1 Paloma asks, "What if it doesn't start?" In Scene 2 she asks, "What do we do?" What do these questions reveal about her? [She worries and thinks ahead about what could go wrong. / She already knows how to fix the pump. / She wants to go back to bed and give up. / She is making fun of Teo.]	She worries and thinks ahead about what could go wrong.	Both of Paloma's questions look ahead to what could go wrong. That shows she worries and thinks about problems before they happen. It does not show she wants to quit or that she knows how to fix the pump.

DRAMA DETECTIVE (6 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
d1_s0	Set 1: In the prose version, Paloma "could hear her own heart pounding." How does the PLAY show this same fear? [With a stage direction: (PALOMA grips the flashlight with both hands. Her voice shakes.) / With a narrator who says, "Paloma was scared." / With the stage direction (TEO yawns and pulls his hood over his ears.) / With the line "Thank you, Mr. Pryor."]	With a stage direction: (PALOMA grips the flashlight with both hands. Her voice shakes.)	The play cannot tell us Paloma's heartbeat, so it shows her fear in a stage direction: (PALOMA grips the flashlight with both hands. Her voice shakes.) The other choices show a different person or a different feeling.

d2_s0	Set 1: Which detail appears in the prose version but NOT in the play? [Paloma realizes that Teo, the family clown, is the one who did not hesitate. / The pump coughs, sputters, and goes quiet. / The thermometer reads thirty-four degrees. / Paloma asks, “What do we do?”]	Paloma realizes that Teo, the family clown, is the one who did not hesitate.	Only the prose version tells Paloma’s private thought that Teo “was the one who did not hesitate.” The pump failing, the 34-degree reading, and the line “What do we do?” appear in BOTH versions.
d1_s1	Set 2: Find the mistake! Ava says, “The prose version uses stage directions, and the play uses a narrator.” Which explanation is correct? [She has it backward: the play uses stage directions, and the prose version uses a narrator. / She is right about both versions. / She is wrong because neither version describes any actions. / She is wrong because both versions use stage directions.]	She has it backward: the play uses stage directions, and the prose version uses a narrator.	Ava has it backward. The PLAY uses stage directions and has no narrator. The PROSE version uses a narrator to describe actions and feelings.
d2_s1	Set 2: Why does the prose version put quotation marks around “What do we do?” while the play does not? [In a play, the speaker’s name and a colon show who is talking; in prose, quotation marks and a tag set off the spoken words. / The playwright forgot the quotation marks. / Quotation marks are only used for questions in prose. / In a play, characters never ask questions.]	In a play, the speaker’s name and a colon show who is talking; in prose, quotation marks and a tag set off the spoken words.	In a script, the name PALOMA and a colon show who is talking, so no quotation marks are needed. In prose, quotation marks and a tag like “she asked” show which words are spoken.
d1_s2	Set 3: What can a prose narrator do that a play script usually CANNOT do, unless a character says it out loud? [Tell a character’s private thoughts directly / Show the words a character speaks / Describe the setting / Include more than one character]	Tell a character’s private thoughts directly	A prose narrator can step inside a character’s mind and tell private thoughts, like “she realized.” In a script, a thought only reaches the audience if a character says it or an actor shows it.
d2_s2	Set 3: Two-step: PALOMA: (letting out a long breath) Thank you, Mr. Pryor. What does the stage direction tell the actor to do, and what does it show about Paloma? [Breathe out slowly, which shows Paloma’s relief that her worry is over / Shout loudly, which shows Paloma is angry at Mr. Pryor / Run off the stage, which shows Paloma is scared of the truck / Yawn, which shows Paloma is bored]	Breathe out slowly, which shows Paloma’s relief that her worry is over	Step 1: (letting out a long breath) tells the actor to breathe out slowly. Step 2: a long breath out is what people do when a worry is over, so it shows Paloma’s relief that the pump is running.

FIX THE SENTENCE (4 POINTS EACH)

fs1_s0	Set 1: Quotation punctuation: add the quotation marks around Paloma’s exact words. Paloma whispered, Thirty-four degrees.	Paloma whispered, "Thirty-four degrees."	In prose, a character’s exact words go inside quotation marks, and the period goes inside the closing quotation mark.
fs2_s0	Set 1: Capitalization: fix the four capital-letter mistakes. the farm is near plant city, florida.	The farm is near Plant City, Florida.	Capitalize the first word of a sentence, both words of the city name Plant City, and the state name Florida.

fs3_s0	Set 1: Comma for direct address: Abuela is talking TO Teo. Add the missing comma. Teo find the big flashlight.	Teo, find the big flashlight.	When you speak directly to someone by name, set the name off with a comma. This is called direct address.
fs4_s0	Set 1: Grammar: fix the verb so it agrees with the subject. The sprinklers was hissing in the dark.	The sprinklers were hissing in the dark.	“Sprinklers” is plural, so it needs the plural verb “were,” not “was.”
fs1_s1	Set 2: Quotation punctuation: add the missing comma at the end of the quote. "I'll get Mr. Pryor" Teo shouted.	"I'll get Mr. Pryor," Teo shouted.	When the tag (Teo shouted) comes after the quote, a comma goes INSIDE the closing quotation mark.
fs2_s1	Set 2: Apostrophes: add the missing apostrophe to show that the engine belongs to the pump. The pumps engine roared to life.	The pump's engine roared to life.	The engine belongs to the pump, so “pump” needs an apostrophe and s to show possession: pump’s.
fs3_s1	Set 2: Comma for direct address: Paloma is talking TO Mr. Pryor. Add the missing comma. Thank you Mr. Pryor.	Thank you, Mr. Pryor.	Paloma is speaking directly to Mr. Pryor, so a comma sets off his name (direct address).
fs4_s1	Set 2: Grammar: fix the its / it’s mistake. Its colder than thirty-two degrees outside.	It's colder than thirty-two degrees outside.	The sentence means “It is colder,” so it needs the contraction “It’s,” with an apostrophe.
fs1_s2	Set 3: Quotation punctuation: fix the capital-letter mistake inside the quotation. Mr. Pryor asked, "where's the pump?"	Mr. Pryor asked, "Where's the pump?"	The first word of a quoted sentence always gets a capital letter, even in the middle of your sentence.
fs2_s2	Set 3: Capitalization: fix the three capital-letter mistakes. in january, the delgado family watches the weather.	In January, the Delgado family watches the weather.	Capitalize the first word of the sentence, the name of a month (January), and a family name (Delgado).
fs3_s2	Set 3: Comma for direct address: Paloma is talking TO Abuela. Add the missing comma. Abuela the pump made a funny noise on Sunday.	Abuela, the pump made a funny noise on Sunday.	Paloma is speaking directly to Abuela, so put a comma after the name (direct address). Without it, the sentence sounds like Abuela is a pump!
fs4_s2	Set 3: Grammar: fix the their / there / they’re mistake. Their going to watch the thermometer all night.	They're going to watch the thermometer all night.	The sentence means “They are going,” so it needs the contraction “They’re.” “Their” shows ownership, and “there” names a place.

SCRIPT TO STORY (4 POINTS EACH)

qt_s0	Set 1: Rewrite this script line as a story sentence. Script (Scene 2): TEO: Why do we spray water on them if it’s freezing? Start with: Teo asked	Teo asked, "Why do we spray water on them if it's freezing?"	Start with the tag, add a comma, then copy Teo’s exact words inside quotation marks. His line is a question, so the question mark goes inside the closing quotation mark.
qt_s1	Set 2: Rewrite this script line as a story sentence. Script (Scene 1): PALOMA: The pump made a funny noise on Sunday. Start with: Paloma said	Paloma said, "The pump made a funny noise on Sunday."	Put a comma after the tag, then Paloma’s exact words inside quotation marks, with the period inside the closing quotation mark. Sunday keeps its capital letter.

qt_s2	Set 3: Rewrite this script line as a story sentence. (The stage direction is left out, because the tag already shows how he speaks.) Script (Scene 2): MR. PRYOR: (gruffly) Your brother pounded on my door like a woodpecker. Start with: Mr. Pryor grumbled	Mr. Pryor grumbled, "Your brother pounded on my door like a woodpecker."	Leave out the stage direction (gruffly); the tag “grumbled” already shows how he speaks. Add a comma after the tag, then his exact words inside quotation marks with the period inside.

WRITER’S TURN: STAGE DIRECTIONS TO PROSE (6 POINTS EACH)

wt_s0	Set 1: Rewrite this stage direction as prose. Tell what Paloma does AND how she feels. Stage direction (Scene 2): (PALOMA grips the flashlight with both hands. Her voice shakes.) Use at least 10 words. Do not copy 4 or more words in a row from the stage direction. Name the character: include Paloma. Keep the key idea: mention the flashlight. Tell how Paloma feels, using a feeling word such as worried, nervous, scared, or afraid. Original: “PALOMA grips the flashlight with both hands. Her voice shakes.”	Sample: Paloma squeezed the flashlight tightly because she was scared, and her words came out trembling.	A strong prose version names Paloma, keeps the flashlight, TELLS her feeling with a word like scared or worried, and uses new words instead of copying the stage direction. Auto-check rubric: at least 10 words; no 4 or more words in a row copied from the original (names count as one word); must include: paloma; flashlight or light or torch; worr or nerv or scar or afraid or fear or anxious or frighten or panic or terrified or upset or tense.
wt_s1	Set 2: Rewrite this stage direction as prose. Tell what Teo does AND how he feels. Stage direction (Scene 2): (TEO yawns and pulls his hood over his ears.) Use at least 10 words. Do not copy 4 or more words in a row from the stage direction. Name the character: include Teo. Keep the key idea: mention his hood. Tell how Teo feels, using a word such as tired, sleepy, cold, or chilly. Original: “TEO yawns and pulls his hood over his ears.”	Sample: Teo was so sleepy and chilly that he tugged his hood down to cover his ears.	A strong prose version names Teo, keeps the hood, TELLS how he feels (tired or cold, which the yawn and the hood suggest), and uses new words instead of copying the stage direction. Auto-check rubric: at least 10 words; no 4 or more words in a row copied from the original (names count as one word); must include: teo; hood or hoodie or hat or jacket or sweatshirt; tired or sleepy or exhaust or drowsy or weary or cold or chilly or freez or frozen.
wt_s2	Set 3: Rewrite this stage direction as prose. Tell what Mr. Pryor does AND what happens to the pump. Stage direction (Scene 2): (MR. PRYOR kneels by the pump, tightens something with a wrench, and pulls the cord. The pump roars to life.) Use at least 10 words. Do not copy 4 or more words in a row from the stage direction. Name the character: include Mr. Pryor. Keep the key idea: mention the pump. Keep the key idea: tell how he fixes it (for example, with a wrench or a tool). Keep the key idea: tell what happens when the pump starts (for example, it roars, rumbles, or starts working). Original: “MR. PRYOR kneels by the pump, tightens something with a wrench, and pulls the cord. The pump roars to life.”	Sample: Mr. Pryor knelt down, used his wrench to fix the machine, and the pump started with a loud roar.	A strong prose version names Mr. Pryor, keeps the pump, tells how he fixed it, and tells that it started, all in new words and a new sentence pattern. Auto-check rubric: at least 10 words; no 4 or more words in a row copied from the original (names count as one word); must include: pryor; pump or engine or motor or machine; fix or repair or wrench or tighten or tool; roar or start or run or rumbl or hum or work or loud or came to life or comes to life.

BOSS CHALLENGE (8 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
b1_s0	Set 1: Two-step: (TEO disappears into the dark. A long pause.) What part of the play is this, and why did the playwright include “A long pause”? [Stage directions; the pause builds suspense while Paloma and Abuela wait to see if help will come. / Dialogue; Teo says “a long pause” as he runs. / Stage directions; the pause tells the audience the play is over. / The cast of characters; it introduces Mr. Pryor.]	Stage directions; the pause builds suspense while Paloma and Abuela wait to see if help will come.	Step 1: the words are in parentheses and describe action, so they are stage directions. Step 2: “A long pause” makes the audience wait with Paloma and Abuela, wondering whether Teo will bring help, which builds suspense.

b2_s0	Set 1: Two-step: Ella turned a script line into prose and wrote paloma said "thank you Mr. Pryor" Which list names ALL of her mistakes? [Capitalize Paloma, add a comma after said, capitalize Thank, add a comma after you, and add a period inside the closing quotation mark / Capitalize Paloma and Thank / Add a comma after said and a period inside the closing quotation mark / Take away the quotation marks, because the line came from a play]	Capitalize Paloma, add a comma after said, capitalize Thank, add a comma after you, and add a period inside the closing quotation mark	Correct: Paloma said, “Thank you, Mr. Pryor.” That fixes the capital in Paloma, the comma after said, the capital at the start of the quote, the comma before Mr. Pryor (direct address), and the period inside the closing quotation mark.
b1_s1	Set 2: Which statement compares the play and the prose version CORRECTLY? [Both tell that the pump fails and Teo runs for help, but the play shows Paloma’s fear through stage directions and dialogue, while the prose tells her thoughts through a narrator. / Both versions end with Mr. Pryor fixing the pump. / The play has a narrator, but the prose version does not. / The prose version leaves out Paloma’s feelings completely.]	Both tell that the pump fails and Teo runs for help, but the play shows Paloma’s fear through stage directions and dialogue, while the prose tells her thoughts through a narrator.	Both versions tell that the pump fails and Teo runs for help. The play shows Paloma’s fear through a stage direction and her line, while the prose narrator tells her heartbeat and private thoughts. The other statements are false: the prose does not include Mr. Pryor’s arrival, and the play has no narrator.
b2_s1	Set 2: Two-step: Teo calls his grandmother “Captain Abuela” in Scene 1, then says (proudly, out of breath) “Understood, Captain Pryor” at the end. What does the repeated joke show, and how has his role changed? [He is still playful, but now he is proud because he was the one who brought help; he is both funny and dependable. / He has stopped joking and become serious and quiet. / He is making fun of Mr. Pryor because he is angry. / Nothing has changed; he did nothing to help.]	He is still playful, but now he is proud because he was the one who brought help; he is both funny and dependable.	Teo is still joking at the end, so he has not lost his sense of humor. But this time he says “Captain Pryor” proudly after HE brought the help. The repeated joke shows he is playful and also dependable.
b1_s2	Set 3: Find the mistake! Quentin wrote this line for a SCRIPT: Paloma: "Thirty-four degrees," she whispered. Which explanation is correct? [A script uses no quotation marks or tags; it should read PALOMA: (whispering) Thirty-four degrees. / It is correct, because scripts use quotation marks like stories do. / Only the comma is wrong; everything else is correct. / He should add a narrator sentence before the line.]	A script uses no quotation marks or tags; it should read PALOMA: (whispering) Thirty-four degrees.	Script lines do not use quotation marks or tags like “she whispered.” The name goes in capital letters with a colon, and HOW she speaks goes in a stage direction: PALOMA: (whispering) Thirty-four degrees.
b2_s2	Set 3: Two-step: in Scene 2, Paloma explains how the sprinklers protect the flowers. What does she say happens, and what does her explanation reveal about her character? [Freezing water gives off heat and keeps the flowers near 32 degrees; it shows she studies and understands how things work. / The water melts the frost right away; it shows she is careless. / The sprinklers warm the air to 50 degrees; it shows she likes to brag. / The ice makes the berries sweeter; it shows she is hungry.]	Freezing water gives off heat and keeps the flowers near 32 degrees; it shows she studies and understands how things work.	Step 1: Paloma says freezing water gives off a little heat and keeps the flowers at about 32 degrees. Step 2: knowing the science (and writing facts in her notebook) shows she studies and plans carefully.
