PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Pre-Lesson Warm-Up: What Do I Already Know?

Write what you know right now. Guesses are fine; this is your starting point.

1. Review (Week 22): Name one writer or musician of the Harlem Renaissance (for example, Langston Hughes, Zora Neale Hurston, Duke Ellington or Louis Armstrong). What did that person create?

2. What do you think a "depression" is when people talk about money and jobs?

3. Prediction: If one out of every four workers lost their job, what problems might families face? Name two.

4. How could a government help people during hard times? Give one idea, and explain who it would help.

5. Write one question you have about the 1930s.

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson Activity: Who Got Help, and Who Was Left Out?

Use evidence from today's lesson. Write in complete sentences.

1. Two causes, one disaster. Explain two causes of the Dust Bowl: one human choice and one natural cause.

2. Do the math. Suppose a Works Progress Administration worker earned $40 in a month and spent $28 on rent and food. How much was left each month? How much would that be after 3 months? Show your work.

3. Find the mistake. "The Social Security Act of 1935 helped every worker in America." Rewrite it so it is true, and name one group of workers it left out.

4. Compare two sources. FDR said in 1933, "This great Nation will endure." Dorothea Lange's 1936 caption says, "Destitute pea pickers in California." How do these two sources show different sides of the Depression?

★ Challenge: Write a short letter (3 or 4 sentences) that Mary McLeod Bethune might send to President Roosevelt asking that a New Deal program include Black Americans fairly. Use correct letter punctuation (greeting, commas and closing).

Looking Ahead: Next week: World War II at home and abroad (1941–1945). We meet the Navajo Code Talkers, the Tuskegee Airmen and women war workers, and learn about the Japanese Americans forced from their homes and the Holocaust.
