PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Pre-Lesson Warm-Up: Who Is Telling?

Do this part BEFORE the lesson. Try your best. It is okay if some of it feels new!

1. Review: You want to know what the word swamp means. Which part of a nonfiction book should you use?

   the glossary | the index | the table of contents

2. Read: I paddled the canoe, and my arms got tired. Write the two words that show who is telling the story.

3. Read: Nathaniel held the railing. He felt the boat rock. Is the person telling this a character in the story?

   yes, it is Nathaniel | no, it is someone outside the story

4. Mireille loves alligators. Her cousin is afraid of them. Why might two people feel differently about the same animal?

5. Write one sentence about something YOU like that a friend or family member does not like.

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson Activity: A New Voice on the Bayou

Read: I tied the little boat to the dock. Then Mawmaw Nadine handed me a bucket of crawfish. "Careful, cher!" she said.

1. Is this told in first person or third person? Write one clue word that tells you.

2. Rewrite the first sentence in third person, as an outside narrator would tell it about Mireille.

3. Find the mistake: Marcel says, "Mawmaw Nadine is the narrator, because she says, 'Careful, cher!'" What went wrong?

4. Two steps: How did Mireille feel about the alligator? How did Nathaniel feel? Give one clue from the texts for each cousin.

★ Challenge: Write YOUR point of view about living on a houseboat. Use the word because and give a reason.

Looking Ahead: Next week: a biography of Roberto Clemente, with the order of events and causes and effects in his real life!
