Name: _____ Date: _____

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

What Do I Remember?

Before the checkpoint, write what you remember from Weeks 11 to 14. It is fine to be unsure; this shows where you are starting.

1. List three things you remember from Unit 3. Try to pick them from different weeks.

2. Quick timeline: put these in order from oldest to newest: Gold found at Coloma, Juneteenth, Louisiana Purchase, Fort Sumter, Trail of Tears, Compromise of 1877.

3. What do these words mean: sovereignty, secede, citizenship? Write what you remember, and guess if you are unsure.

4. Which person or topic from Unit 3 are you least sure about? What do you want to review?

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

What Did I Learn in Unit 3?

Use evidence from all four weeks. Write in complete sentences.

1. Choose one promise from Unit 3 (Worcester v. Georgia, the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, the Emancipation Proclamation or the 14th Amendment). What did it promise, was it kept, and who paid the cost when it was not?

2. Compare two sources from the unit (the Cherokee Address of 1830, the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, the secession declarations or Jourdon Anderson's letter). Who wrote each one, why, and what does each show about freedom?

3. Name two people from different weeks who pushed the nation to live up to its promise of freedom. What did each one do?

4. Whose land? Whose freedom? How has your answer changed since Week 11?

★ Challenge: Plan a three-panel museum display called Whose Land? Whose Freedom? 1803 to 1877. For each panel, name one person, one source, and one question visitors should ask about it.

Looking Ahead: You did it! You finished all 15 weeks of Pathways Social Studies, from how historians know the past and life in the Americas before 1492 all the way through Reconstruction, and you learned to ask whose story it is and how we know. One thing to keep exploring: Reconstruction's promises of citizenship and the vote were not fully enforced until the civil rights laws of the 1960s. With a parent or librarian, find out who led that fight and how they finished the unfinished work.
