PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Pre-Lesson Warm-Up: Same and Different

Do this part BEFORE the lesson. Try your best. It is okay if some of it feels new!

1. What do you think the word compare means? Write your best guess.

2. Read: Cats and dogs can both be pets. Cats like to climb. Dogs like to dig. What is the SAME about cats and dogs?

   They can both be pets. | They both like to climb. | They both like to dig.

3. Which word is a clue that two things are DIFFERENT?

   but | both | also

4. Draw two circles that overlap. Label one circle Apple and the other Banana. In the middle, write one way they are the same. In each outer part, write one way that fruit is different.

5. Review: The sentence under a picture that tells about it is called a ___.

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson: Two Texts, One Harvest

Do this part AFTER the lesson. Look back at Text A and Text B if you need to.

1. Write the most important point of Text A (the article) in one complete sentence.

2. Write the most important point of Text B (Linh's account) in one complete sentence.

3. Draw a Venn diagram for Text A and Text B. Write at least one detail in each part: Text A only, both, and Text B only.

4. Which sentence CONTRASTS the two texts?

   - Text A tells about machines, but Text B tells about ducks.
   - Both texts tell about the harvest.
   - Both texts are about rice.

5. Fix the sentence. Write it correctly: grandma dad and linh worked in the paddy

★ Challenge: Write two sentences that compare Text A and Text B (use the word both) and two sentences that contrast them (use the word but).

Looking Ahead: Next week, Theo and Mia visit a community garden in Atlanta and learn about author's purpose: the reason an author writes a text, such as to inform, to entertain, or to persuade.
