Why Did the Author Write It? — Teacher Lesson Plan & Answer Key

Learning objectives: Students identify an author's purpose (to inform, to persuade, or to entertain) using clues in the text, find the main purpose of a text that mixes facts and opinions, and tell their own point of view apart from the author's.

Duration: 35–45 minutes
Materials: Computer or tablet with the lesson open · pencil · printed Pre & Post sheet

Lesson flow (as it appears on screen)

1. Title & name: student types first and last name so results go to KingCretot Experience; introduce the Atlanta community garden and the three texts.
2. Warm-Up Review (12 pts): Week 13 skill, comparing two texts on the same topic. Each set shows a pair of short texts about rice farming in Vietnam; have the student read both before answering.
3. Pencil Break (Pre): student completes the Pre part of the paper sheet before any teaching. Do not help with answers; it shows what they already know.
4. Word Wrangler: six vocabulary cards (author, author's purpose, inform, persuade, entertain, point of view). Have the student say each word and meaning back.
5. Picture It: the PIE diagram and the clue chart. Ask: what clues would tell you a text was written to persuade?
6. Read: three texts about the same garden: a how-to sign (inform), a Volunteer Day flyer (persuade), and a funny runaway pumpkin story (entertain). Have the student read at least one part aloud and guess each purpose before the teaching slides.
7. Three Reasons Authors Write (9 pts): inform, persuade, entertain, with new mini-texts and the garden texts. Tip: ask “Why did the author write this?” before looking at choices.
8. Clues That Show the Purpose (9 pts): facts and steps (inform), opinion words and calls to action (persuade), characters and funny events (entertain). Includes find-the-mistake and two-step items.
9. Finding the MAIN Purpose (9 pts): a text can mix facts and opinions; ask what the author wants most. Key teaching point: how-to steps are directions that inform, not persuasion, and facts in a flyer can support persuading.
10. My Point of View vs. the Author's (9 pts): use the starters “The author thinks...” and “I think...”. Readers may agree or disagree, but should give a reason.
11. Word Work Bonus (XP only): the suffix -ful (colorful, careful, helpful).
12. Match-Up (10 pts): five matches, 2 points each on the first try.
13. Fix the Sentence (10 pts): two sentences tied to the garden; capital letters, end marks, commas in a list. Answers are checked exactly, so remind the student to type the whole sentence.
14. Type-It Corral (12 pts): typed purpose words and text facts; the “Look back” panel is allowed.
15. Speed Arena & Keyboard Corral (XP only): quick review and a typing sentence.
16. Boss Battle (20 pts): purpose of new sentences, two-step clue + purpose pairs, find the mistake, and point of view.
17. Pencil Break (Post): student completes the Post part of the sheet, then presses See My Score.
18. Results: 85+ shows the author's purpose master congratulations with confetti; below 85 shows encouragement and a fresh question set on the next attempt.

Every scored item the student sees, in order, across all three rotating question sets. The "why" is the same reasoning shown on screen after a second missed try.

WARM-UP REVIEW: COMPARING TWO TEXTS (WEEK 13)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
w1_s0	[Set 1] What topic do BOTH texts share? [Rice / Tomatoes / Noodle shops / Water buffalo]	Rice	Text A tells how rice grows, and Text B tells how families eat rice. Both texts are about rice.
w2_s0	[Set 1] Which detail would go in the middle of a Venn diagram, because it is in BOTH texts? [Rice grows in wet fields called paddies. / Rice can be made into noodles for pho. / Water keeps weeds away. / Farmers plant rice in rows.]	Rice grows in wet fields called paddies.	Text A says flooded fields called paddies, and Text B says wet fields called paddies. The other details are in only one text.
w3_s0	[Set 1] Which detail is ONLY in Text B? [Rice can be made into noodles for a soup called pho. / Rice grows in paddies. / Farmers plant young rice plants in rows. / Water helps the rice grow.]	Rice can be made into noodles for a soup called pho.	Only Text B talks about noodles and pho. Paddies are in both texts, and rows and water are only in Text A.
w4_s0	[Set 1] When you tell how two texts are the same, you ___ them.	compare	When you compare, you tell how two texts are the same. When you contrast, you tell how they are different.
w1_s1	[Set 2] Both texts are mostly about: [Harvesting rice / Cooking noodles / Wearing hats / Planting tomatoes]	Harvesting rice	Text A tells about cutting rice by hand at harvest time, and Text B tells about harvest machines. Both are about harvesting rice.
w2_s1	[Set 2] How do the two texts contrast? How are they DIFFERENT? [Text A tells about cutting rice by hand, and Text B tells about machines. / Text A is about rice, and Text B is about corn. / Only Text B says the grains are dried. / Text A is about tomatoes, and Text B is about rice.]	Text A tells about cutting rice by hand, and Text B tells about machines.	Both texts are about the rice harvest, but Text A shows farmers using a sickle and Text B shows a machine doing the work.
w3_s1	[Set 2] Find the mistake! Priya says the two texts have nothing in common. What went wrong? [Both texts say the rice grains are dried after harvest. / Text B is not about rice. / Two texts can never share a detail. / Nothing went wrong.]	Both texts say the rice grains are dried after harvest.	Text A says the grains are dried in the sun, and Text B says the grains are dried after harvest. That detail is in both texts.
w4_s1	[Set 2] Text A says farmers cut rice with a curved knife called a ___.	sickle	Text A: Farmers cut the plants by hand with a curved knife called a sickle.
w1_s2	[Set 3] What topic do BOTH texts share? [The cone-shaped hat that rice farmers wear / How to cook rice / Rain boots / Rice machines]	The cone-shaped hat that rice farmers wear	Both texts tell about the cone-shaped hat that rice farmers wear.

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
w2_s2	[Set 3] Which explanation is correct? Jalen says Text A and Text B tell the exact same facts. Priya says both texts are about the same hat, but Text A tells how it blocks the sun and Text B tells how it helps in the rain. [Priya is right, because the texts share a topic but give different details / Jalen is right, because texts on the same topic always say the same things / Jalen is right, because both texts say the hat is light / Neither is right, because the texts are about different topics]	Priya is right, because the texts share a topic but give different details	The texts share a topic, the hat, but they give different details: sun in Text A and rain in Text B.
w3_s2	[Set 3] Which detail is ONLY in Text A? [The hat is made from dried leaves. / The hat helps the rain slide off. / The hat is cone-shaped. / The hat is light.]	The hat is made from dried leaves.	Only Text A tells what the hat is made from. Cone-shaped is in both texts, and rain and light are only in Text B.
w4_s2	[Set 3] Both texts say the hat is shaped like a ___.	cone	Both texts call it a cone-shaped hat.

THREE REASONS AUTHORS WRITE (P.I.E.)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
t1a_s0	[Set 1] An author who gives facts and teaches you something true is writing to: [Inform / Persuade / Entertain]	Inform	To inform means to give facts and teach the reader something true.
t1b_s0	[Set 1] What is the main purpose of the sign "How to Plant a Tomato"? [To inform readers how to plant tomatoes / To persuade readers to buy tomatoes / To entertain readers with a funny story about a tomato]	To inform readers how to plant tomatoes	The sign gives facts and steps about planting tomatoes. It teaches, so its purpose is to inform.
t1c_s0	[Set 1] Which explanation is correct? Jalen says the flyer was written to persuade because it asks neighbors to come help. Priya says the flyer was written to entertain because it talks about tomatoes. [Jalen is right, because the flyer is trying to get neighbors to do something / Priya is right, because any text about tomatoes is written to entertain / Priya is right, because the flyer is a made-up story / Neither is right, because the flyer has no purpose]	Jalen is right, because the flyer is trying to get neighbors to do something	The flyer asks neighbors to come help and sign up. Trying to get readers to do something is persuading.
t1a_s1	[Set 2] When an author gives facts and teaches you something true, the purpose is to ___.	inform	Giving facts and teaching the reader is the purpose called inform.
t1b_s1	[Set 2] Read: A little worm named Wiggles wanted to see the city, so he rode a bus to downtown Atlanta. What is the author's purpose? [To entertain / To inform / To persuade]	To entertain	A worm with a name who rides a bus is a made-up character in a story. The author wants you to enjoy it, so the purpose is to entertain.

t1c_s1	[Set 2] Find the mistake! Priya said the flyer's purpose is to entertain because it starts with a question. What went wrong? [Starting with a question does not make a text a story. The flyer is trying to get neighbors to volunteer, so it persuades. / The flyer does not start with a question. / A text that starts with a question is always written to inform. / Nothing went wrong.]	Starting with a question does not make a text a story. The flyer is trying to get neighbors to volunteer, so it persuades.	The flyer does start with a question, but the whole flyer is trying to get neighbors to come help. That is persuading.
t1a_s2	[Set 3] An author who wants you to do something or believe something is writing to: [Persuade / Inform / Entertain]	Persuade	To persuade means to try to get the reader to do something or believe something.
t1b_s2	[Set 3] Read: Butterflies drink sweet nectar from flowers. They taste with their feet. What is the author's purpose? [To inform / To persuade / To entertain]	To inform	These sentences give true facts about butterflies, so the purpose is to inform.
t1c_s2	[Set 3] Which garden text was written mainly to entertain? [The Great Pumpkin Escape / How to Plant a Tomato / Grow With Us!]	The Great Pumpkin Escape	The Great Pumpkin Escape is a funny, made-up story with a talking pumpkin. It was written to entertain.

CLUES THAT SHOW THE PURPOSE

t2a_s0	[Set 1] Which sentence from the garden texts is a clue that the author wants to PERSUADE? [Don't miss it! / Tomato plants grow new roots along their stems. / She rolled past the tomato plants. / Tomato plants need at least six hours of sunshine every day.]	Don't miss it!	Don't miss it! pushes the reader to come to Volunteer Day. Telling the reader to act is a persuade clue.
t2b_s0	[Set 1] The sign has numbered steps: Step 1, Step 2, Step 3, and Step 4. This clue shows the author wants to: [Inform readers how to do something / Persuade readers to buy tomatoes / Entertain readers with a funny story]	Inform readers how to do something	Numbered steps teach the reader how to do something. That is a clue for inform.
t2c_s0	[Set 1] In the story, Penny the pumpkin talks and yells, "Wheeeee!" What does this clue tell you? [The story is made up and was written to entertain / The story gives true steps for growing pumpkins / The story is trying to sell pumpkins / The story has no purpose]	The story is made up and was written to entertain	Real pumpkins cannot talk. A talking pumpkin is a made-up character, which is a clue for entertain.
t2a_s1	[Set 2] Which sentence from the garden texts is a clue that the author wants to INFORM? [Water the soil around the plant, not the leaves. / Volunteering at the garden is the best way to spend a Saturday morning. / Don't miss it! / Well, that is one way to make an entrance!]	Water the soil around the plant, not the leaves.	Water the soil, not the leaves is a step from the sign that teaches how to care for a tomato plant. That is an inform clue.

t2b_s1	[Set 2] Find the mistake! Jalen says the word best in the flyer is a clue that the author wants to inform. What went wrong? [Best shows an opinion, which is a clue that the author wants to persuade. / The word best is not in the flyer. / Opinion words are clues for entertain. / Nothing went wrong.]	Best shows an opinion, which is a clue that the author wants to persuade.	The flyer says volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday morning. Best is an opinion word, a clue for persuade.
t2c_s1	[Set 2] A made-up character, like a talking pumpkin, is a clue that the author wants to ___.	entertain	Made-up characters and funny events are clues for entertain.
t2a_s2	[Set 3] Which sentence from the garden texts is a clue that the author wants to ENTERTAIN? [She bounced through the gate and down the sidewalk, yelling, "Wheeeee!" / Tomato plants need at least six hours of sunshine every day. / Sign up at the garden gate today! / We will have gloves and tools for everyone.]	She bounced through the gate and down the sidewalk, yelling, "Wheeeee!"	A pumpkin bouncing down the sidewalk and yelling is a funny, made-up event. That is an entertain clue.
t2b_s2	[Set 3] Two steps! The flyer says, "Our garden needs YOUR help! Sign up at the garden gate today!" Step 1: find the clue. Step 2: name the purpose. [Clue: it asks the reader to do something. Purpose: persuade. / Clue: it asks the reader to do something. Purpose: entertain. / Clue: it tells a funny story. Purpose: persuade. / Clue: it gives steps for planting. Purpose: inform.]	Clue: it asks the reader to do something. Purpose: persuade.	Sign up today asks the reader to take action. Asking the reader to act is a clue that the author wants to persuade.
t2c_s2	[Set 3] Steps and facts that teach you something are clues that the author wants to ___.	inform	Steps and facts teach the reader, so they are clues for inform.

FINDING THE MAIN PURPOSE

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
t3a_s0	[Set 1] The flyer gives some facts, like the time of Volunteer Day. Why did the author put these facts in the flyer? [To help persuade neighbors to come and volunteer / To entertain readers with a funny story / To teach readers how to plant tomatoes / To tell about a runaway pumpkin]	To help persuade neighbors to come and volunteer	The time and day help neighbors show up. The facts are there to help the flyer persuade.
t3b_s0	[Set 1] Which question helps you find an author's MAIN purpose? [What does the author want me to know, do, or feel by the end? / How many words are in the title? / What color is the paper? / Which sentence is the shortest?]	What does the author want me to know, do, or feel by the end?	The main purpose is what the author wants most: for you to learn, to do something, or to enjoy a story.

t3c_s0	[Set 1] Which explanation is correct? Priya says the sign gives facts and steps about planting, so it was written to inform. Jalen says the flyer has numbers, like 500 pounds, so the flyer was also written mainly to inform. [Priya is right. The numbers in the flyer are reasons to get people to volunteer, so the flyer still persuades. / Jalen is right, because any text with a number is written to inform. / Jalen is right, because the flyer has no opinions. / Neither is right, because the sign was written to entertain.]	Priya is right. The numbers in the flyer are reasons to get people to volunteer, so the flyer still persuades.	A text can have facts and still persuade. The flyer uses the 500 pounds fact as a reason to come help, so its main purpose is to persuade.
t3a_s1	[Set 2] Pumpkins really do grow on vines, and the story says Penny was picked from the vine. Does that make the story's MAIN purpose to inform? [No. The story is mostly a funny, made-up adventure, so its main purpose is to entertain. / Yes. Any true detail means the purpose is to inform. / Yes. The story is trying to sell pumpkins. / No. The story has no purpose at all.]	No. The story is mostly a funny, made-up adventure, so its main purpose is to entertain.	One true detail does not change the main purpose. The story has a talking pumpkin and a silly chase, so it was written to entertain.
t3b_s1	[Set 2] Two steps! Step 1: What does the flyer ask readers to do? Step 2: What is the flyer's main purpose? [Step 1: Sign up to volunteer. Step 2: To persuade. / Step 1: Sign up to volunteer. Step 2: To entertain. / Step 1: Plant a tomato. Step 2: To persuade. / Step 1: Chase a pumpkin. Step 2: To inform.]	Step 1: Sign up to volunteer. Step 2: To persuade.	The flyer asks readers to sign up at the garden gate. Getting readers to act means the main purpose is to persuade.
t3c_s1	[Set 2] Find the mistake! Jalen said, "The sign tells me what to do, like Dig a hole, so its purpose is to persuade." What went wrong? [The steps teach HOW to plant a tomato. They are not trying to change his mind, so the sign informs. / The sign does not say Dig a hole. / Steps are always clues for entertain. / Nothing went wrong.]	The steps teach HOW to plant a tomato. They are not trying to change his mind, so the sign informs.	Directions in a how-to text teach you how to do something. The sign is not trying to talk you into anything, so its purpose is to inform.
t3a_s2	[Set 3] A text can have facts AND opinions. What does the author of the flyer want MOST? [For neighbors to come help at the garden / For readers to laugh at a pumpkin / For readers to learn how deep to plant tomatoes / For readers to read the newsletter]	For neighbors to come help at the garden	The flyer ends with Sign up at the garden gate today! The author most wants neighbors to come help.
t3b_s2	[Set 3] The author's most important reason for writing is the ___ purpose.	main	The main purpose is the author's most important reason for writing.
t3c_s2	[Set 3] Read: Come to the Peach Festival! It has the sweetest peaches in Georgia. A bag of peaches costs two dollars. What is the MAIN purpose? [To persuade / To inform / To entertain]	To persuade	It has a fact, the price, but it wants you to come to the festival, and sweetest is an opinion. The main purpose is to persuade.

MY POINT OF VIEW VS. THE AUTHOR'S

t4a_s0	[Set 1] What does Mr. Morales, the author of the flyer, think about volunteering at the garden? [It is the best way to spend a Saturday morning. / It is boring. / It is only for grown-ups. / It is too hot to do.]	It is the best way to spend a Saturday morning.	The flyer says, Volunteering at the garden is the best way to spend a Saturday morning. That is the author's point of view.
t4b_s0	[Set 1] Jalen says, "I would rather play soccer on Saturday morning." Whose point of view is this? [Jalen's own point of view as a reader / Mr. Morales's point of view / Ms. Odessa's point of view / Penny the pumpkin's point of view]	Jalen's own point of view as a reader	Jalen is telling what HE thinks. That is a reader's point of view, and it is different from the author's.
t4c_s0	[Set 1] Which explanation is correct? Priya says Jalen is wrong because he disagrees with the author. Jalen says a reader can disagree with the author, as long as he gives a reason. [Jalen is right, because readers can have their own point of view and explain it / Priya is right, because readers must always agree with the author / Priya is right, because authors are never wrong / Neither is right, because readers do not have points of view]	Jalen is right, because readers can have their own point of view and explain it	Your point of view can be different from the author's. You can agree or disagree, and a reason makes your point of view strong.
t4a_s1	[Set 2] What the author thinks or feels about a topic is the author's point of ___.	view	The author's point of view is what the author thinks or feels about a topic.
t4b_s1	[Set 2] Which sentence tells a READER's point of view, not the author's? [Jalen: I think the funniest part is when the squirrel drops its acorn. / Volunteering at the garden is the best way to spend a Saturday morning. / Our garden needs YOUR help! / Kids can be helpful too, so bring the whole family.]	Jalen: I think the funniest part is when the squirrel drops its acorn.	Jalen is a reader telling what he thinks about the story. The other sentences come from the flyer, so they are the author's words.
t4c_s1	[Set 2] Find the mistake! Priya wrote, "The author of the flyer thinks volunteering is boring." What went wrong? [The flyer says volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday morning, so the author thinks it is great. / The flyer never talks about volunteering. / Authors do not have points of view. / Nothing went wrong.]	The flyer says volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday morning, so the author thinks it is great.	Look back at the flyer: the author calls volunteering the best way to spend a Saturday morning. That is the opposite of boring.
t4a_s2	[Set 3] Which words in the flyer show the author's point of view? [the best way to spend a Saturday morning / from 9 to 11 in the morning / gloves and tools for everyone / at the garden gate]	the best way to spend a Saturday morning	Best way tells what the author thinks. The other words are facts about time, tools, and place.

t4b_s2	[Set 3] Two steps! Step 1: Find the author's point of view in the flyer. Step 2: Choose a reader who DISAGREES and gives a reason. [Author: Volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday. Reader: I disagree, because I get too hot working outside. / Author: Volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday. Reader: I agree, because I love tomatoes. / Author: Volunteering is boring. Reader: I agree. / Author: Pumpkins can roll. Reader: Pumpkins are orange.]	Author: Volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday. Reader: I disagree, because I get too hot working outside.	Step 1: the flyer says volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday. Step 2: I disagree, because I get too hot disagrees AND gives a reason.
t4c_s2	[Set 3] When you share your own point of view, what should you include? [A reason that explains why you think that / The author's name only / A drawing of the author / Nothing else, just yes or no]	A reason that explains why you think that	A strong point of view says what you think AND why you think it.

MATCH-UP

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)

FIX THE SENTENCE

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
fx1_s0	[Set 1] Fix the sentence. It needs a capital letter at the start. jalen planted tomatoes in the garden.	Jalen planted tomatoes in the garden.	Every sentence starts with a capital letter. Jalen is a name, so it always gets a capital J.
fx2_s0	[Set 1] Fix the sentence. This telling sentence needs an end mark. Volunteer Day is on Saturday	Volunteer Day is on Saturday.	A telling sentence ends with a period.
fx1_s1	[Set 2] Fix the sentence. Add commas to separate the things in the list. Bring a hat a water bottle and sunscreen.	Bring a hat, a water bottle, and sunscreen. (also accepted: Bring a hat, a water bottle and sunscreen.)	Use commas to separate three or more things in a list: a hat, a water bottle, and sunscreen.
fx2_s1	[Set 2] Fix the sentence. It needs a capital letter at the start. did you see the runaway pumpkin?	Did you see the runaway pumpkin?	Every sentence starts with a capital letter, so did becomes Did.
fx1_s2	[Set 3] Fix the sentence. It needs a capital letter at the start. priya read the funny story.	Priya read the funny story.	Every sentence starts with a capital letter. Priya is a name, so it always gets a capital P.
fx2_s2	[Set 3] Fix the sentence. This asking sentence needs an end mark. Who wrote the garden sign	Who wrote the garden sign?	An asking sentence ends with a question mark.

TYPE-IT CORRAL

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
ty1_s0	[Set 1] An author who gives facts and teaches you is writing to ___.	inform	Giving facts and teaching is the purpose called inform.
ty2_s0	[Set 1] The sign says tomato plants need at least six hours of ___ every day.	sunshine or sun or sunlight	Sign, part 1: Tomato plants need at least six hours of sunshine every day.
ty3_s0	[Set 1] The flyer asks neighbors to come and ___ at the garden.	volunteer or help	The flyer asks neighbors to come help on Volunteer Day.
ty1_s1	[Set 2] An author who tries to get you to do something is writing to ___.	persuade	Trying to get the reader to do or believe something is the purpose called persuade.

BOSS BATTLE

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
bb1_s0	[Set 1] Which new sentence would fit best on the tomato SIGN? [Tomato plants grow yellow flowers before they make tomatoes. / Tomatoes are the best food in the whole world! / Tommy the tomato told a silly joke. / Hurry and buy a tomato today!]	Tomato plants grow yellow flowers before they make tomatoes.	The sign was written to inform, so a true fact about tomato plants fits best. The others persuade or entertain.
bb2_s0	[Set 1] Two steps! Choose the pair that names a clue from the FLYER and the purpose it shows. [Clue: Don't miss it! Purpose: persuade / Clue: Don't miss it! Purpose: entertain / Clue: Step 1: Dig a hole. Purpose: persuade / Clue: Wheeeee! Purpose: inform]	Clue: Don't miss it! Purpose: persuade	Don't miss it! is in the flyer, and it pushes the reader to come. That is a persuade clue.
bb3_s0	[Set 1] Find the mistake! Jalen sorted the texts like this: Sign: inform. Flyer: entertain. Story: entertain. Which one did he get wrong? [The flyer. It was written to persuade. / The sign. It was written to entertain. / The story. It was written to inform. / He got them all right.]	The flyer. It was written to persuade.	The flyer asks neighbors to sign up and come help, so it persuades. The sign informs and the story entertains.
bb4_s0	[Set 1] The sign gives facts and steps, so the author's purpose is to ___.	inform	Facts and steps are clues that the author wants to inform.
bb1_s1	[Set 2] Why did Mr. Morales write, "Last year, our volunteers grew over 500 pounds of vegetables"? [To give a reason that will persuade neighbors to volunteer / To make readers laugh at a silly story / To teach readers how to plant tomatoes / To tell readers about Penny the pumpkin]	To give a reason that will persuade neighbors to volunteer	The fact shows that volunteers do a lot of good. It is a reason meant to get more neighbors to help.
bb2_s1	[Set 2] Two steps! Choose the pair that names a clue from the SIGN and the purpose it shows. [Clue: Step 1: Dig a hole. Purpose: inform / Clue: Step 1: Dig a hole. Purpose: entertain / Clue: Sign up today! Purpose: inform / Clue: Runaway pumpkin! Purpose: persuade]	Clue: Step 1: Dig a hole. Purpose: inform	Step 1 is in the sign, and steps teach how to do something. That is an inform clue.

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
bb3_s1	[Set 2] Which explanation is correct? Jalen says, "The author of the flyer and I must have the same point of view, because I read his flyer." Priya says, "A reader's point of view can be different from the author's." [Priya is right, because readers can agree or disagree with the author / Jalen is right, because reading a text means you agree with it / Jalen is right, because there is only one point of view / Neither is right]	Priya is right, because readers can agree or disagree with the author	Reading a text does not mean you agree with it. Your point of view is your own.
bb4_s1	[Set 2] Mr. Morales thinks volunteering is the best way to spend a Saturday morning. If you think so too, you ___ with the author.	agree	When you think the same as the author, you agree.
bb1_s2	[Set 3] If Mr. Morales wanted to INFORM instead of persuade, which sentence would he most likely write? [The garden has 20 garden beds and a shed for tools. / You will love Volunteer Day! / Don't miss the fun! / Once upon a time, a carrot sang a song.]	The garden has 20 garden beds and a shed for tools.	A fact about the garden informs. "You will love Volunteer Day!" and "Don't miss the fun!" persuade, and the singing carrot entertains.
bb2_s2	[Set 3] Two steps! Choose the pair that names a clue from the STORY and the purpose it shows. [Clue: Penny the pumpkin talks. Purpose: entertain / Clue: Penny the pumpkin talks. Purpose: inform / Clue: Don't miss it! Purpose: entertain / Clue: Step 4: Water the soil. Purpose: entertain]	Clue: Penny the pumpkin talks. Purpose: entertain	Penny talking happens in the story, and a talking pumpkin is a made-up character. That is an entertain clue.
bb3_s2	[Set 3] Find the mistake! Jalen wrote, "My point of view: Mr. Morales thinks the garden needs help." What went wrong? [That is the author's point of view, not Jalen's. Jalen needs to tell what HE thinks and why. / The flyer never says the garden needs help. / Jalen is not allowed to have a point of view. / Nothing went wrong.]	That is the author's point of view, not Jalen's. Jalen needs to tell what HE thinks and why.	Jalen only retold what the author thinks. His own point of view starts with I think, I agree, or I disagree, plus a reason.
bb4_s2	[Set 3] If you do not think the same as the author, you ___ with the author.	disagree	When your point of view is different from the author's, you disagree.

Pre & Post sheet answer guide

Many items are open-ended. Grade for genuine understanding and complete sentences, not exact wording.

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
1	Why do people write?	Any reasonable answer (to teach, to share a story, to get someone to do something). Pre item; grade for effort.
2	Frogs can breathe through their skin: why written?	To give a fact (inform).
3	Apple sentence: what does the author want you to do?	Eat apples (persuade).
4	Silly goose sentence: why written?	To entertain.

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
5	Owl texts: what do BOTH say? (review)	Owls hunt at night.

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
1	Purpose of each garden text	How to Plant a Tomato: inform. Grow With Us!: persuade. The Great Pumpkin Escape: entertain.
2	A persuade clue from the flyer	Any one: “the best way to spend a Saturday morning,” “Our garden needs YOUR help!,” “Don’t miss it!,” “Sign up at the garden gate today!,” “Then come help...,” or the 500 pounds fact used as a reason.
3	Bee poster: MAIN purpose	To persuade (it has a fact, but it wants readers to plant flowers).
4	Your point of view on volunteering	Any answer that starts with I agree or I disagree and gives a reason. It must be the student’s own view, not a retelling of the author’s.
5	Fix: odessa planted tomatoes peppers and beans	Odessa planted tomatoes, peppers, and beans. (Capital O, commas in the list, period at the end; the comma before “and” is optional.)

★ CHALLENGE

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
1	Three sentences labeled P, I, E	Look for: an I sentence with a true fact, a P sentence with an opinion word or a call to action, and an E sentence that is a fun or made-up moment; correct labels, capital letters, and end marks.
