PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Pre-Lesson Warm-Up: Listen to the Sea

Do this part BEFORE the lesson. Try your best. It is okay if some of it feels new!

1. Review: Read: Keiko's grandpa was exhausted, or very tired, after a long day on his lobster boat. What does exhausted mean? What clue helped you?

2. Which two words rhyme?

   dock and rock | dock and deck | dock and dark

3. Read this short poem: The waves go splash, / The gulls all cry, / The boats sail out / Beneath the sky. How many lines does it have? Which two words rhyme?

4. Which sentence compares two things using like or as?

   The sail is as white as snow. | The sail is white. | I like white sails.

5. Think of a beach, a lake, or a park. Write one thing you could hear there and one thing you could smell there.

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson Activity: A New Harbor Poem

1. Harbor Night: The lighthouse blinks its yellow eye, / The stars come out across the sky. // The boats sit still like ducks asleep / Above the water, dark and deep. // I smell the fish, I hear the bell, / I feel the cool sea breeze as well. (// = new stanza) How many stanzas are there? Which two words rhyme in stanza 2?

2. Find the mistake: Josie says The lighthouse blinks its yellow eye has 8 beats. Clap it. What went wrong?

3. Two steps: Step 1: Write the simile from the poem. Step 2: What does it help you picture?

4. Write your own sensory line about a place you love. Use a word for hearing, smell, taste, or touch.

★ Challenge: Write a two-line stanza about the harbor. Make the lines rhyme, and use a simile.

Looking Ahead: Next week at Market Square in Texas, you will sort facts and opinions and write an opinion!
