Poems from the Clouds: Figurative Language and Poetry — Teacher Lesson Plan & Answer Key

Learning objectives: Students identify similes, metaphors, personification, hyperbole, and imagery in original poems about a mountain village in the Andes of Peru, and explain in plain words what each figure of speech really means. They describe poem structure (line, stanza, rhyme, rhyme scheme, rhythm, free verse) and write their own simile and 4-line stanza.

Duration: 35–45 minutes
Materials: Computer or tablet with the lesson open · pencil · printed Pre & Post sheet

Lesson flow (as it appears on screen)

1. Slide 0 · Intro and name capture: the student types first and last name so results go to KingCretot Experience. Preview the mountain village in the Andes of Peru and the quest list.
2. Slide 1 · Warm-Up Review (Week 12): two items on topic sentences, supporting details, and transitions. Point out the contrast: informative writing says things exactly, while poetry plays with words.
3. Slide 2 · Pencil Break (Pre): the student completes the Pre-Lesson Warm-Up sheet on paper before any teaching.
4. Slide 3 · Picture It: Figurative Language. Use the two-panel picture ("The river is a silver ribbon") to contrast literal and figurative meaning, then walk through the five-device chart. Have the student say the signal-word rule aloud: like or as means simile; is or was means metaphor.
5. Slide 4 · Picture It: The Parts of a Poem. Use the labeled llama stanza to show line, stanza, rhyme, and rhyme scheme letters (ABAB). Clap the 4 beats of line 1 together to hear rhythm. Explain that free verse has no set rhyme pattern.
6. Slide 5 · Vocabulary flip cards: simile, metaphor, personification, hyperbole, imagery, stanza, rhyme, rhythm.
7. Slide 6 · Vocabulary practice: one multiple-choice item and one typed item.
8. Slide 7 · Poem 1, "Morning Fog" (2 stanzas, ABCB), with a terraced-valley illustration and a short note on Andean terraces. Two items. Read the poem aloud twice, once for meaning and once to hear the rhythm and rhyme.
9. Slide 8 · Poem 2, "Grandma's Loom" (3 stanzas, AABB couplets), with a backstrap-loom illustration and a note on weaving and natural dyes. Two items. Ask: how is this rhyme pattern different from "Morning Fog"?
10. Slide 9 · Poem 3, "Market Day" (free verse, 2 stanzas), with a market illustration and a note on Andean markets and the Quechua language. Two items. Have the student point to one detail for each sense.
11. Slide 10 · What Does It Really Mean? Three steps (name it, find the two things, say it plainly), then one "what does it really mean" item and one "which explanation is correct" item.
12. Slide 11 · Device Detective: one find-the-wrong-label item and one which-explanation-is-correct item (simile vs. metaphor, rhyme scheme, or free verse). Have the student explain why each wrong choice is wrong.
13. Slide 12 · Writer's Workshop: a typed simile (scored; the check looks for the word like or as, so read it together to confirm it truly compares two things), a rhyming-word couplet finisher (scored), and an unscored Writer's Notebook stanza with a 4-goal checklist.
14. Slide 13 · Fix the Sentence (4 typed items): capitalization, two punctuation items (apostrophes, end marks, poem titles in quotation marks, or commas in a date), and one grammar item (agreement, its/it's, or verb tense). Checked exactly (curly or straight quotes and extra spaces are OK). The corrected sentence appears after the 2nd miss.
15. Slide 14 · Match-Up Round: 5 term/meaning pairs, 2 points per first-try match.

16. Slide 15 · Speed Trail (bonus XP only): 3 quick poetry questions against the student's own best time.
17. Slide 16 · Boss Challenge: two two-step items (name two devices at once, or choose the stanza that meets every requirement: number of lines, rhyme pattern, and device).
18. Slide 17 · Pencil Break (Post): the student completes the Post-Lesson Challenge sheet, including writing a 4-line stanza.
19. Slide 18 · Results: score out of 100, sent to KingCretot Experience. 85+ shows the Poetry Pro congratulations with a big confetti burst; below 85 shows encouragement and a fresh question set on the next try.

Lesson answer key with reasoning

Every scored item the student sees, in order, across all three rotating question sets. The "why" is the same reasoning shown on screen after a second missed try.

WARM-UP REVIEW (WEEK 12) (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
rv1_s0	Which sentence would make the best TOPIC SENTENCE for a paragraph about how workers build an apartment building?	Building an apartment building takes several careful steps.	A topic sentence tells the main idea of the whole paragraph. The other choices are small details, not the big idea (Week 12).
rv2_s0	First, workers pour the foundation. ___, they build the frame. Finally, they add the roof. Which transition fits the blank?	Next	The paragraph tells steps in order: First, Next, Finally. "Next" is a time-order transition (Week 12).
rv1_s1	The topic sentence is "Builders in Houston must plan for heavy rain." Which sentence does NOT belong in this paragraph?	My cousin's favorite color is blue.	Every detail should support the topic sentence. A cousin's favorite color has nothing to do with planning for rain (Week 12).
rv2_s1	The old building had only two floors. ___, the new apartment tower will have twelve. Which transition fits the blank?	However	The two sentences show a difference, so you need a contrast transition like "However" (Week 12).
rv1_s2	Put these sentences in the best order for a paragraph. (A) Then electricians add the wires. (B) Building an apartment happens in stages. (C) First, a crew builds the frame.	B, C, A	Start with the topic sentence (B), then the first step, which begins with "First" (C), and then the next step, which begins with "Then" (A) (Week 12).
rv2_s2	Builders use strong materials. ___, steel beams hold up each floor. Which transition fits the blank?	For example	The second sentence gives an example of a strong material, so "For example" is the right transition (Week 12).

VOCABULARY PRACTICE (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
v1_s0	A comparison of two different things using the word like or as is called a ___.	Simile	A simile compares two different things using like or as.
v2_s0	Type your answer: a group of lines in a poem, like a paragraph in a story, is called a ___.	stanza (also accepted: stanzas)	A group of lines in a poem is a stanza. A blank space usually separates one stanza from the next.
v1_s1	Giving human actions or feelings to something that is not human is called ___.	Personification	When an animal, object, or idea does something only a person could do, that is personification.
v2_s1	Type your answer: a huge exaggeration that is not meant to be taken literally is called ___.	hyperbole (also accepted: hyperboles)	A huge exaggeration, like "I've told you a million times," is hyperbole.

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
v1_s2	Words and details that help you see, hear, smell, taste, or feel something are called ___.	Imagery	Imagery is made of sensory details: words that appeal to the five senses.
v2_s2	Type your answer: a comparison that says one thing IS another thing, without using like or as, is called a ___.	metaphor (also accepted: metaphors)	A metaphor says one thing is another, like "The river is a silver ribbon."

POEM 1: MORNING FOG (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
p1a_s0	Read these lines: "The fog creeps up the valley / like an alpaca, slow and sweet." Which device does the poet use?	Simile	The poet compares the fog to an alpaca using the word "like," so it is a simile. The fog moves slowly and gently, the way an alpaca walks.
p1b_s0	Which pair of words RHYMES in the first stanza of "Morning Fog"?	sweet and neat	"Sweet" and "neat" end with the same sound (-eet), so they rhyme.
p1a_s1	Read these lines: "The sun climbs up the mountain / and stretches out its arms." Which device does the poet use?	Personification	The sun cannot really stretch out arms. Giving it a human action is personification.
p1b_s1	The poet calls the fog "a blanket soft and neat." What does this metaphor really mean?	The fog covers the fields completely and gently, the way a blanket covers a bed	A metaphor is not literal. The fog is not cloth, but it covers the fields smoothly and completely, just like a blanket.
p1a_s2	How many stanzas does "Morning Fog" have, and how many lines are in each stanza?	2 stanzas, with 4 lines in each	There are two groups of lines separated by a space. Each group (stanza) has 4 lines.
p1b_s2	Which lines rhyme in each stanza of "Morning Fog"?	The 2nd and 4th lines	In stanza 1, "sweet" and "neat" (lines 2 and 4) rhyme. In stanza 2, "arms" and "farms" (lines 2 and 4) rhyme. The pattern is ABCB.

POEM 2: GRANDMA'S LOOM (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
p2a_s0	Read this line: "Her yarn is a river, red and gold." Which device does the poet use?	Metaphor	The line says the yarn IS a river, with no like or as. That makes it a metaphor.
p2b_s0	Which describes the rhyme pattern of "Grandma's Loom"?	Every two lines in a row rhyme with each other	Post and most, tap and lap, gold and cold, birds and words, peak and week: each pair of lines in a row rhymes. The pattern is AABB.
p2a_s1	Read this line: "She's woven enough to blanket every peak." Which device does the poet use?	Hyperbole	No one could weave enough cloth to cover every mountain. This huge exaggeration is hyperbole. It shows that Grandma has woven a LOT.
p2b_s1	Which line from "Grandma's Loom" helps you HEAR what is happening?	The wooden sticks go tap, tap, tap.	"Tap, tap, tap" is a sound detail. The other lines describe how things look or feel, or exaggerate. Only this one lets you hear a sound.

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
p2a_s2	What does “Her fingers fly as quick as birds” really mean?	Grandma moves her fingers very fast and skillfully	This simile compares Grandma’s fingers to quick birds. It means she weaves fast and with skill, not that her fingers can really fly.
p2b_s2	How many stanzas are in “Grandma’s Loom,” and how many lines are in the LAST stanza?	3 stanzas; the last one has 2 lines	There are three groups of lines. The first two have 4 lines each, and the last stanza has just 2 lines.

POEM 3: MARKET DAY (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
p3a_s0	Read these lines: “On Sunday the plaza wakes up early, / yawning under bright blue tarps.” Which device does the poet use?	Personification	A plaza cannot really wake up or yawn. Giving it human actions is personification. It shows the market slowly coming to life.
p3b_s0	Which line from “Market Day” appeals to the sense of SMELL?	I smell steaming corn and fresh cheese.	Steaming corn and fresh cheese are smell details. The other lines appeal to hearing, sight, and touch.
p3a_s1	Read this line about the potatoes: “more colors than the sky has stars.” Which device does the poet use?	Hyperbole	The potatoes do not really have more colors than there are stars. This exaggeration is hyperbole. It shows there are MANY colors.
p3b_s1	How is “Market Day” different from “Morning Fog”?	“Market Day” does not rhyme; it is free verse	“Market Day” has two stanzas and lots of sensory details, but its line endings do not rhyme. A poem without a set rhyme pattern is free verse.
p3a_s2	The poet writes, “I hear Quechua and Spanish / stirred together like soup.” What does this really mean?	People at the market are speaking both languages, all mixed together	This simile compares the mix of languages to soup ingredients stirred together. You hear both languages at the same time.
p3b_s2	Which line from “Market Day” uses a SIMILE?	its wool soft as a cloud,	“As soft as a cloud” compares the wool to a cloud using “as.” The other lines use personification, hyperbole, and a smell detail.

WHAT DOES IT REALLY MEAN? (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
m1_s0	After the long walk to market, Killa says, “My backpack weighs a ton!” What does she really mean?	Her backpack feels very heavy	This is hyperbole. She is exaggerating to show that her backpack feels very heavy.
m2_s0	Read: “The wind whispered through the quinoa.” Which explanation is correct?	It is personification: the wind makes a soft, quiet sound, the way a person whispers	Only people whisper, so giving the wind that action is personification. It really means the wind makes a soft, hushed sound. There is no like or as, so it is not a simile.
m1_s1	Killa’s uncle says, “The river is a snake winding through the valley.” What does he really mean?	The river twists and curves back and forth through the valley	This metaphor compares the river to a snake. Like a snake’s body, the river bends and curves as it moves through the valley.

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
m2_s1	Read: “The alpaca’s wool was as white as fresh snow.” Which explanation is correct?	It is a simile that shows the wool is very white	The comparison uses “as,” so it is a simile, and it means the wool is bright white. It does not say the wool IS snow.
m1_s2	Killa’s brother says, “I’m so hungry I could eat every potato in Peru!” What does he really mean?	He is very hungry	This is hyperbole. No one could eat every potato in Peru. He is exaggerating to show how hungry he is.
m2_s2	Read: “The market was a beehive of people.” Which explanation is correct?	It is a metaphor that shows the market was crowded, busy, and buzzing with noise	It says the market WAS a beehive, with no like or as, so it is a metaphor. It means the market was full of busy, buzzing people.

DEVICE DETECTIVE (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
d1_s0	Find the mistake! Mateo labeled four lines. Which label is WRONG?	“The fog is a gray blanket.” = simile	“The fog is a gray blanket” says the fog IS a blanket, with no like or as, so it is a metaphor, not a simile.
d2_s0	Sofia says, “‘The alpaca’s wool is like a cloud’ is a metaphor because it compares two things.” Which explanation is correct?	Sofia is wrong: it uses “like,” so it is a simile. Similes and metaphors both compare.	Similes and metaphors both compare two things. The difference is the signal word: a simile uses like or as, and this one uses “like.”
d1_s1	Find the mistake! Which label is WRONG?	“The sun was a golden coin.” = personification	“The sun was a golden coin” says the sun IS a coin. The sun does not do anything human, so it is a metaphor, not personification.
d2_s1	Diego says the rhyme pattern of this stanza is AABB: / The llamas walk the mountain trail. / Their bells ring out so clear. / They do not stop for wind or hail, / and soon the town is near. / Which explanation is correct?	Diego is wrong: lines 1 and 3 rhyme (trail, hail) and lines 2 and 4 rhyme (clear, near), so the pattern is ABAB.	Trail and hail share a sound (A), and clear and near share a different sound (B). The letters go A, B, A, B.
d1_s2	Find the mistake! Which label is WRONG?	“The wind is like a flute.” = metaphor	“The wind is like a flute” uses the word “like,” so it is a simile, not a metaphor.
d2_s2	Lucia says this is NOT a poem because it does not rhyme: / Morning mist / curls around the corn / like a sleepy kitten. / Which explanation is correct?	Lucia is wrong: poems do not have to rhyme. Free verse uses lines and images without a rhyme pattern.	Free verse is poetry without a set rhyme pattern. It is still a poem because it uses lines, images, and figurative language.

WRITER’S WORKSHOP (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
w1_s0	Write your own SIMILE about the morning fog over the terraced fields. Pathway Points check: your sentence must use the word like or as.	Any original sentence that uses the word like or as. Sample: The fog drifted over the terraces like a soft gray scarf.	A simile compares two different things using like or as. Example: The fog was as soft as alpaca wool. (Scored automatically: the sentence must contain the word “like” or “as.” Read it with the student and check that it really compares two different things.)

w2_s0	Type ONE word that rhymes with “white” to finish the couplet: The fog rolls in so soft and white / and hides the village from my ___.	sight	“Sight” rhymes with “white,” and it makes sense: the fog hides the village so you cannot see it.
w1_s1	Write your own SIMILE about an alpaca. Pathway Points check: your sentence must use the word like or as.	Any original sentence that uses the word like or as. Sample: The alpaca’s ears stood up like two little flags.	A simile compares two different things using like or as. Example: The alpaca’s neck was as long as a broom handle. (Scored automatically: the sentence must contain the word “like” or “as.” Read it with the student and check that it really compares two different things.)
w2_s1	Type ONE word that rhymes with “hill” to finish the couplet: The alpacas climb the hill, / then stand together, calm and ___.	still (also accepted: chill)	“Still” rhymes with “hill,” and it makes sense: the alpacas stand calm and not moving.
w1_s2	Write your own SIMILE about Grandma’s loom or her yarn. Pathway Points check: your sentence must use the word like or as.	Any original sentence that uses the word like or as. Sample: Her red yarn glowed like a sunrise.	A simile compares two different things using like or as. Example: The loom clicked like a busy clock. (Scored automatically: the sentence must contain the word “like” or “as.” Read it with the student and check that it really compares two different things.)
w2_s2	Type ONE word that rhymes with “door” to finish the couplet: Grandma weaves beside the door. / Red threads tumble to the ___.	floor (also accepted: floors)	“Floor” rhymes with “door,” and it makes sense: the threads fall down to the floor.

FIX THE SENTENCE (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
fs1_s0	Capitalization: fix the three capital-letter mistakes. on sunday, killa walked to the market.	On Sunday, Killa walked to the market.	Capitalize the first word of a sentence, days of the week (Sunday), and names (Killa). (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs2_s0	Punctuation: add the apostrophe. The loom belongs to ONE weaver. The weavers loom is tied to a wooden post.	The weaver's loom is tied to a wooden post.	To show that something belongs to one person, add an apostrophe and s: weaver’s. (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs3_s0	Punctuation: fix the end mark. Where do the alpacas sleep at night.	Where do the alpacas sleep at night?	This sentence asks a question, so it ends with a question mark. (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs4_s0	Grammar: fix the verb so it agrees with the subject. Keep the word “alpacas.” The alpacas walks up the steep hill.	The alpacas walk up the steep hill.	“Alpacas” is plural, so it takes the plural verb “walk,” not “walks.” (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs1_s1	Capitalization: fix the four capital-letter mistakes. many people in the andes speak quechua and spanish.	Many people in the Andes speak Quechua and Spanish.	Capitalize the first word, the name of a place (Andes), and the names of languages (Quechua, Spanish). (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
fs2_s1	Punctuation: put quotation marks around the poem's title. Killa read the poem Morning Fog aloud.	Killa read the poem "Morning Fog" aloud.	The title of a poem goes inside quotation marks. (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs3_s1	Punctuation: add the missing apostrophe in the contraction. Grandma doesnt rush her weaving.	Grandma doesn't rush her weaving.	"Doesn't" is short for "does not." The apostrophe takes the place of the missing letter o. (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs4_s1	Grammar: fix the its / it's mistake. The alpaca shook it's fluffy head.	The alpaca shook its fluffy head.	"It's" means "it is." The head belongs to the alpaca, so use the possessive "its" with no apostrophe. (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs1_s2	Capitalization: fix the three capital-letter mistakes. the terraces near cusco were built long ago by the inca.	The terraces near Cusco were built long ago by the Inca.	Capitalize the first word, the name of a city (Cusco), and the name of a people (Inca). (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs2_s2	Punctuation: put quotation marks around the poem's title. (The period goes inside the closing quotation mark.) My favorite poem is Grandma's Loom.	My favorite poem is "Grandma's Loom."	Poem titles go inside quotation marks. In American English, a period at the end goes inside the closing quotation mark. (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs3_s2	Punctuation: add the two commas this date needs. Market day was on Sunday May 3 2026.	Market day was on Sunday, May 3, 2026.	Put a comma after the day of the week (Sunday) and another comma between the date and the year (May 3, 2026). (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)
fs4_s2	Grammar: fix the verb tense. This happened yesterday. Yesterday the fog roll down the valley.	Yesterday the fog rolled down the valley. (also accepted: Yesterday, the fog rolled down the valley.)	"Yesterday" tells us it happened in the past, so use the past-tense verb "rolled." (Checked exactly; straight or curly quotes and extra spaces are OK.)

MATCH-UP ROUND (SETS 1–3, 2 POINTS EACH)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
m1_s0	Set 1 match: simile	compares using like or as	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m2_s0	Set 1 match: metaphor	says one thing IS another	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m3_s0	Set 1 match: personification	gives human actions to a non-human thing	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m4_s0	Set 1 match: hyperbole	a huge exaggeration	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m5_s0	Set 1 match: stanza	a group of lines in a poem	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m1_s1	Set 2 match: imagery	details that appeal to the five senses	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
m2_s1	Set 2 match: rhyme	words that end with the same sound	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m3_s1	Set 2 match: rhythm	the beat you hear in a poem	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m4_s1	Set 2 match: line	one row of words in a poem	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m5_s1	Set 2 match: free verse	a poem with no set rhyme pattern	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m1_s2	Set 3 match: simile	compares using like or as	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m2_s2	Set 3 match: hyperbole	a huge exaggeration	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m3_s2	Set 3 match: rhyme scheme	the pattern of rhymes, like ABCB	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).
m5_s2	Set 3 match: literal	what the words exactly say	2 points per first-try match (10 per set).

SPEED TRAIL (BONUS XP ONLY, NOT SCORED)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
tt1	Which word is a signal for a simile?	like	Similes use like or as to compare.
tt2	“The sun smiled down on the village.” Which device is this?	Personification	The sun cannot really smile, so this is personification.
tt3	Which pair of words rhymes?	hill and still	“Hill” and “still” both end with the -ill sound.

BOSS CHALLENGE (SETS 1–3)

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
b1_s0	Two-step: Read the lines The mountain yawned in the morning sun, / its snow as white as Grandma’s wool. Which choice names the device in EACH line correctly?	Line 1: personification; line 2: simile	A mountain cannot yawn, so line 1 gives it a human action (personification). Line 2 compares the snow to wool using “as” (simile).
b2_s0	Two-step: Which stanza has 4 lines, an ABCB rhyme pattern, AND a simile?	The bus bumps down the road / with sacks of corn and grain. / The clouds roll in like sheep / and bring the mountain rain.	The correct stanza has 4 lines, “grain” and “rain” rhyme on lines 2 and 4 (ABCB), and “like sheep” is a simile. The “fluffy sheep” stanza uses a metaphor instead, the short stanza has only 3 lines, and the stanza ending “water there” does not rhyme.
b1_s1	Two-step: Read The old bus groaned up the mountain road, carrying a million sacks of potatoes. Which choice names BOTH devices correctly?	“Groaned” is personification; “a million sacks” is hyperbole	A bus cannot really groan like a tired person (personification), and no bus could carry a million sacks (hyperbole).

ID	Question	Answer	Why (explain to student)
b2_s1	Two-step: Read this stanza. / Up on the terrace, high and steep, / the farmers sow their quinoa seeds. / They work until the sun's asleep, / then pull away the weeds. / Which choice gives the number of lines AND the rhyme pattern correctly?	4 lines; ABAB: lines 1 and 3 rhyme, and lines 2 and 4 rhyme	Steep and asleep (lines 1 and 3) share sound A. Seeds and weeds (lines 2 and 4) share sound B. Four lines with the pattern A, B, A, B.
b1_s2	Two-step: Read The fog is a gray ghost. Which choice names the device AND tells what it really means?	Metaphor; the fog is pale and moves silently	It says the fog IS a ghost, with no like or as, so it is a metaphor. It means the fog is pale and drifts quietly, the way people imagine a ghost would.
b2_s2	Two-step: Which stanza has 4 lines, an AABB rhyme pattern, AND personification?	The river laughs along the stones. / It rattles like a bag of bones. / It hurries down to reach the town / and never stops to settle down.	The correct stanza has 4 lines, the pairs stones/bones and town/down rhyme (AABB), and a river that laughs is personification. The stanza ending "rest" has no AABB rhyme, the short stanza has only 2 lines, and the stanza ending "never settles down" rhymes ABAB.

Pre & Post sheet answer guide

Many items are open-ended. Grade for genuine understanding and complete sentences, not exact wording.

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
1	Which sentence is a simile?	The river is like a silver ribbon. (It compares using "like.")
2	Underline the personification word.	whistled (whistling a song is a human action given to the wind)
3	What does "My bag weighs a ton!" really mean?	Her bag feels very heavy. (Hyperbole: it does not really weigh a ton.)
4	Which two words rhyme?	hill and still
5	Match: stanza, metaphor, hyperbole.	stanza = a group of lines in a poem; metaphor = says one thing IS another; hyperbole = a huge exaggeration
6	Review: transition that shows a difference.	However

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
1	Label four lines.	(a) metaphor, (b) simile, (c) hyperbole, (d) personification
2	"The sun was a golden coin above the mountains."	Metaphor. The sun looked round, bright, and gold, like a shiny coin. (Accept any explanation that names the shared qualities: round, shiny, golden.)
3	Rhyme scheme and number of lines.	ABAB, 4 lines (hill/still = A, green/seen = B). Bonus: "the village sleeps" is personification.
4	Which line appeals to touch?	The wool felt soft and scratchy against my cheek.

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
5	Write a 4-line stanza.	Grading note: 4 lines; the end words of lines 2 and 4 rhyme; at least one simile or metaphor, one personification, and one sensory detail, each underlined; the figures of speech fit the place described. Sample: The city wakes and stretches tall, / its windows gold with light. / The buses hum like sleepy bees / and rumble out of sight.

★ CHALLENGE

#	Prompt	Model answer / grading note
1	Free-verse market-day poem (6 to 10 lines, two stanzas).	Grading note: two stanzas, 6 to 10 lines total; no rhyme is required (free verse); at least one each of simile, metaphor, personification, and hyperbole, correctly labeled; details for three different senses. Praise fresh comparisons over familiar ones.
