POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson: From the Grove to Your Glass

Do this part AFTER the lesson. Look back at the booklet if you need to.

1. Write the topic of the booklet in one or two words.

2. Write the main idea of the WHOLE booklet in one complete sentence.

3. Write two key details from the booklet that support the main idea.

4. Paragraph 3's main idea is "At harvest time, oranges are picked by hand." Which detail does NOT support it?

   Workers climb tall ladders. | Pickers fill bags that hang from their shoulders. | The orange blossom is the state flower of Florida.

5. Fix the sentence. Write it correctly: rosa grows oranges grapefruit and lemons

★ Challenge: Write your own short paragraph (3 to 4 sentences) about how a food you like gets to your table. Underline your main idea sentence and number each key detail.

Looking Ahead: Next week, Theo and Mia visit a city bakery in Chicago and learn how text features like headings, captions, and bold words help readers find information fast.
