POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson Activity: Regions of the United States

Answer after the lesson. Show your work for the math.

1. Name the five regions many student maps use. Then circle the one you live in.

2. Find the mistake: Javier writes, "The capital of Illinois is Chicago." Fix it and explain.

3. Two-step problem: Jamila's family drives 320 miles on Saturday and 145 miles on Sunday. Their trip is 700 miles in all. How many miles are left? Show your work.

4. Pick one region. Name one landform and one natural resource there. How does the land help people earn a living?

★ Challenge: A school map puts Texas in the Southwest, but the Census Bureau puts it in the South. On the back, explain why both maps can be right.

Looking Ahead: Next week: Coming to America. Learn why people move to the United States, visit Ellis Island and Angel Island, and see how newcomers built communities.
