Warm Up Your Story Brain

Try your best on your own. It's okay if you're not sure — that's what today's lesson is for!

1. What does “point of view” mean?

2. Think of a time you and a friend saw the same event differently. Write 1–2 sentences.

3. Circle the word that means “a person's own way of seeing something”:

   perspective sequence

4. Draw two people looking at the same object from different sides.

5. Can two different points of view about the same moment both be true? Why or why not?

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Show What You Learned

Now that you've finished the computer lesson, show what you learned!

1. In 2–3 sentences, retell what happens in this week's story.

2. Name the two characters whose points of view are compared in the story.

3. Explain how each character saw the SAME moment differently.

★ Challenge: Write about a moment from your own life from two different points of view — yours and someone else's.

Looking Ahead: Next week you'll learn about character motivation and change! Write one thing you feel confident about with point of view.
